There was an adjourned meeting of the poe Society on the evening of April 26th in the Y. W. C. A. Hall. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

A rising vote of thanks was extended the debators and the chem leader. The debators thanked the Society for the roses given them the night of the debate

Miss Julia Taylor was elected president of the Society for the coming year. She took the oath of office and presided at the meeting.

Miss Irma Fuqua, retiring president, expressed her pleasure at being able to serve the Society in the capacity of president; the Society extended a rising vote of thanks in appreciation of the faithful service Miss Fuqua has rendered the Society.

An invitation from the Lanier Society to hear Mr. Obteat sing was read and accepted by the Society.

Miss Bass asked for the co-operation of all in getting up the program for next week

Miss Fuqua suggested that we get a moving picture machine for the school.

There was no report from the critic.

The meeting adjourned.