Miss Sallie Minshew took oath of the society. After this the Constitution was read by the Secretary Helen Bahnson. A letter from Julia Rowe was read. She sent us her dues making her still an active member of the society.

Volunteers for the flower bed were asked for. The poster Committee reported a poster each time. Most all of the girls had paid their dues and others were expected soon.

As it was the night for election of officers the following were nominated, voted on and elected.
