3. Violin and piano duet by Misses Meade & Gorrell
4. Current events - Mary Lee Stanton
5. Vocal solo - Virginia Rhea.

As there was no further business the society adjourned -

G. Davis, Sec.

The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular business meeting in the Y. W. C. A. hall Jan. 8, 1921. The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll was called but no minutes read.

The reports from the standing committees were as follows: Flower bed committee, a request to Mr. Wright to have beds covered to keep them from freezing; Treasury, a bill for $7 for rental of costumes and payment of $50 on motion picture machine. There were no reports from the poster or room committees.

Miss Ruth Wetmur took the oath of membership and became a member of the E. A. P. society.

As the Secretary and doorkeeper did not return after Christmas, it was necessary to elect new ones. Miss Annie H. Felton was elected Secretary and Miss Hortense Mohone, doorkeeper.

There was a discussion of our next program, a Poe program. The president read an article from "Life" concerning the preservation of Poe's cottage in Jordan, N.Y. It was moved and carried that we have a free will offering taken at the next regular meeting for this.

The society sang "Oh, Edgar Allan" - then the meeting adjourned.

Annie H. Felton, Sec.