The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular business meeting in the auditorium Jan. 22, 1921. The meeting was called to order by the president, roll called, the minutes read and approved.

The treasury reported another payment of $50 on motion picture machine. Also, a balance of $49.41 in treasury. The program committee reported work on the Poe program. The stationery committee reported an investigation on kinds and prices of society stationery. There were no other reports.

Misses Pauline Stem and Naomi Peterson took the oath of membership and became a member of the E. A. P. Society.

Miss Ruth Dean gave us a short talk on the responsibilities of marshalls.

The nominees for marshalls were as follows:

Helen Boone	Myrtle Hall
Neola Spivey	Louise Whichard
Virginia Rhea	Madie Oliver
Tommie Fisher	Mamie Hayes
Pauline Saunders

The question was brought up as to what kind of contest the societies should have. The president appointed a committee consisting of Helen Croom, Neola Spivey, and Virginia Rhea to look into the matter and report. The president appointed a committee to see about the Poe Bulletin Board. The committee consists of Carrie Evans, Josie Crisco, Anna Belle Wood.

Letters from Misses Irma Fugua and Ethel Southerland were read. They sent their dues thus making them still ~~an~~ active members of our society. The critic reported a little improvement over the last meeting but said there was still room for much improvement.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Annie H. Felton, Sec.