The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular business meeting in the Y. W. C. A. hall on Feb. 12, 1921. The meeting was called to order by the vice president. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.

The treasury reported another payment of $2.75 on motion picture machine, $3.71 amount in treasury. The committees reported as follows: Poster, that pictures of Edgar Allan Poe had been ordered to put on posters; stationery, that stationery with Poe emblem could be bought for $.75 a box, this business being left over for the next meeting. There were no further reports.

Letters from Misses Gay Albriton, Elizabeth Bass and Marie Gatling were read. As each of them sent their dues they are still active members of the Society.

The critics report wasn't very favorable. She hoped to see improvement in the following meetings.

There being no further business the meeting was turned over to the program committee.
