The Edgar Allan Poe Literary Society held its regular business meeting in the auditorium on Feb. 26, 1921. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved. There was no report from the treasury. The committees reported as follows: Flower bed, that snap-dragon seed amounting to $.90 had been bought, as Miss Pittard used her own money in buying them she was asked to hand in a bill for that amount to the treasurer; program, reported open forum for next meeting; Inter-Society, that they had decided on three suitable queries for debate.

Miss Pittard read standards which a student must attain in order to be a Representative Marshall of the E. A. P. Society, as follows:

1. At the time of her election her Class record in all subjects must show passing grades.
2. Her record with the S. G. Association must be satisfactory.
3. ~~She must have conducted herself in a creditable manner in her Society life and in her School life in general.~~
4. She must have joined the Society at a date not later than the formal initiation of new members in the fall term.

The standards were discussed. It was moved seconded and carried that the standards be accepted, Also, that they be posted on the Poe Bulletin Board. A nominating committee of Misses Bell, Pittard and Felton was appointed to look up records of girls and to nominate 10 or more girls for marshalls. It was moved, seconded and carried that each year the president appoint a nominating committee to nominate 10 or more girls to be voted upon by the society for representative Marshalls from the E. A. P. Society.

A letter from Miss Gladys Baum was read. As she sent her dues she is still an active member. A challenge from the Lanier
