Society was read by the secretary, challenging the Poe Society to debate for the loving cup on the query, "Resolved - That the incoming Congress devise and put into operation a plan for the immediate independence of the Philippine Islands." The query was discussed and it was moved, seconded and carried that the challenge not be accepted until advice from the advisory board can be obtained. The president appointed a committee, Misses Hicks, Owa O'Brian and Hayes, to get material for the debate, Also, to discuss the query with the advisory board.

The critic reported good behavior and expressed a desire to see the good work continue. As there was no other business the meeting was turned over to the program committee.
