There was a call meeting of the Poe Society on March 1, 1921, the purpose of which was to discuss the debate and also to discover debating material by means of the Open Forum. The argements on the query "Resolved — That Davenport's Store is advantagious to the students of E. C. T. S." were good. Miss Hicks reported that some material had come and also that she had seen Mr. Meadows and Miss Graham in regards to the debate. They suggested that it be left to the debators which side they wanted to debate. It was moved, seconded and carried that the acceptance of the challenge be postponed until more information can be obtained. The president asked miss Hicks to distribute the material among the debators.

The meeting adjourned.

There was a call meeting of the Poe Society on March 7, 1921 the purpose of which was to accept or reject the challenge of the Lanier Society. Mr. Meadows and Miss Graham had advised that it be accepted. It was moved, seconded and carried that the challenge be accepted. The debators were referred to the advisory board and Misses Croom and Bahnson for aid in the debates. As it was left up to the debators to choose, they chose the negative side of the question. The president announced that the society still owed Mr. Wright $23 on the moving picture machine. She also asked for suggestions as to the methods of raising the money.
