There was a call meeting of the Poe Society on March 22, 1921, for the purpose of electing marshalls. The nominating committee submitted the names of the nominees and they were voted upon. Misses Hicks, Boone, Saunders and Spivey were elected representative marshalls from the Poe Society. There was a rising vote of thanks giving to the outgoing marshalls in appreciation of their faithful services. The president then asked that those who had not paid their nickel for the flowers for debate, to pay treasurer. The president also stated that the society wanted to get the High School Minstrel over for an evening soon after Easter. As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.
