and seconded that we get another nice flag to go in the main corridor of the Administration building between the two doors of the auditorium. It was passed by the society.

Kate Newsome's resignation as secy. of this society was read by the President. It was voted on and passed that her resignation be accepted. Ora Evans was elected as the new secretary.

Miss Irma Fugnay, a former president of the E. A. P. Literary Society, made a short talk to the society.

Miss Marguerite Henley, another old member, also made a talk.

Miss Relie Perry, a former member of the society, paid her dues of $1.00 and is still an active member.

A short program was rendered, and the critic made an excellent report. as there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Ora Evans, Secy.
Irma O'Briant, Pres.

A regular business meeting of the E. A. P. Literary Society was held in the Auditorium on Dec. 10, 1921. The meeting was called to order by the president. An excellent Christmas program was given first. Then the roll was called and the minutes read and approved. The chairman of the poster committee reported that she needed some money to get poster paper. It was moved and passed that she get this money.

The business manager of the Quarterly explained different things about it and urged the girls to take it.

A motion was made by Miss O'Briant and seconded by Miss Cook that we get the great pianoist, Mr. Egerman of Philadelphia, to come and give a public performance.