of 25¢. The amendment will be adopted at the next regular meeting.
An excellent program was given in honor of Poe's birthday.
Missie Irma Vause and Grace Strasebunger, former members, have paid their dues of $1.00 and are still active members.
There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Ora Evans, sec.
Oma O'Briant, Pres.

A regular business meeting of the E. a. P. Literary Society was held in the Y. W. C. a. Hall on Feb. 11, 1922. The meeting was called to order by the president. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved.
Miss Sanders, the chairman of the inter-society committee, reported that they had decided that the debate would come this term between the two societies. She asked that a book be bought to keep the minutes of the inter-society meetings in. a motion was made and carried to get this book.
The Fleming portrait was again discussed and Helen Boone was appointed by the president, to act on this committee with Miss Lewis.
It was discussed which would be best, open forum debate or have two debaters from each society. The rules for open forum debating was read by sec. It was moved and passed that the open forum debate be adopted.
The committee for getting literature reported. they had not heard from the places they ordered from.
It was moved by Miss Bull and seconded by Miss O'Briant that the amendment to art. V. sec. 1. be adopted. It