A regular business meeting of the Poe Literary Society was held in the Y. W. C. A. Hall Mar. 11, 1922. The meeting was called to order by the President. The roll was called and the minutes read and approved. The chairman of the flower bed committee reported that Miss Snuffly had bought $2.00 worth of the Poe violets. Miss Penny reported that she had prepared the notes for the Y. W. C. A. handbook.

Miss Hicks' report was that she had not heard from the company concerning the society stationery but that she would write them right away.

Miss Cook stated that there was two debating books from the University in this college and she wished to know if both were in the society. She was informed that there was only one in the Poe society. as there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the cheer leaders and the songs for the coming debate were practiced.

The critics report was given in which she emphasized how much the songs helped the debaters on the night of the debate.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.
