Mattie Erma Edwards
Kathryn Brown
Viola Rimmer
Mabel Guffy
Edith Bradley
The four girls elected were:
Martha Harrell
Julia Whitty
Lillian Jordan
Ora Evans.

The president welcomed the old member, who was back with us, Miss Link.

The critic reported that the behavior was very unfavorable and that the society had been very noisy. A rising vote of thanks to the old officers. The president told us how she had enjoyed being pres. of this society and working with us. There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

Miss Midlie Everett has paid her dues of $1.00 and is still an active member of the Pol Society.

Ora Evans, Sec.
Onia O'Briant, Pres.

A regular business meeting of the Pol Literary Society was held in the auditorium April 22, 1922. The meeting was called to order by the president. It was moved and carried that the roll call be omitted. The minutes were read and approved.

Chm. of the flower bed committee reported that some bulbs had been planted.

Miss Hicks urged that the girls buy some stationery or it would have to be charged to the society.

The president stated that she would appoint her committees later in the term.

Miss O'Briant said that the social activities committee said each society was