Article IV. Offenses.

Section 1. All offenses against the Constitution, By-laws, or Rules of Order of this Society shall be referred to an investigation committee consisting of three members in good standing, whose duty it shall be to present the charges and prosecute the accused. Said accused shall have the right of defense.

Article V. Excuses.

Section 1. Any member of this Society in good standing who is unable to attend all the regular meetings of said body may obtain a standing excuse by petitioning for the same in writing. The possession of such an excuse shall render its holder ineligible to any office in this society, or to vote.

Article VI. Parliamentary Rules.

Section 1. All deliberations of this Society shall be conducted according to general parliamentary practices as set forth in "Roberts Rules of Order" except as otherwise provided for in the By-laws.

Article VII. Amendments.

Section 1. These By-laws can be amended at any regular meeting of the Society by a two-thirds vote of the members present provided notice of such amendment was given at the previous regular meeting.

H E Austin
Mattie Ruffin
Nell Pender
Elizabeth Pugh
Marguerite Davis