Section 9. Honorary Membership.

The President and Lady Principal of this school are Honorary Members of this Society by virtue of their position together with such members of the faculty and officers as are each year selected by lot to hold this relationship with this Society.

Section 10. Any person of high moral character whom the Society might wish to show courtesy to, and who might by being an honorary member add honor to the society, may by a written request from one member of the society addressed to the president become an honorary member of this body by unanimous vote of the membership present.

Section 11. Any honorary member whose course of conduct shall become undignified or reflect dishonor in any way upon the general standing of the Society shall be subject to expulsion after the manner laid down for active members in section 8.

Section 12. Membership in Bad Standing.

Any active member of this Society becoming in arrears to the same to the amount of fifty cents or more shall be notified by the Treasurer, if such member fails to pay said amount within three weeks of the time of notification by this failure he becomes a member in bad standing.

Section 13. A member in bad standing shall be denied all privileges of voting, of holding office, of participating in any Society contest, or addressing the Society except in writing at any business session.