TO STRIVE, TO SEEK, TO FIND, BUT NOT TO YIELD

The theme of this pageant was suggested by the Senior Class motto.

The pageant attempts to interpret this motto by showing how men and women through the ages have spent their lives in striving toward some ideal, in seeking enlightenment for humanity, in finding means to serve the human race and not yielding until they had accomplished their purpose or died in their attempt.

Like those, we, the Senior Class of 1933, are going out "to strive, to seek, to find, but not to yield."

Scene: Mother and two children are on a terrace; characters pantomime below the terrace.
