Dear Eberhart,

Thank you very much for your kind letter of February 29th which I received some days ago. I was very much touched by what you said and by your taking the trouble to let me know your memories of my brother.

I have also just received the copy of Burr Oaks a day or two ago and look forward to reading it with much pleasure. I hope that I may see you again in Cambridge in the autumn.

Yours sincerely,

T. S. Eliot
