

- No. 23 (c) Pocket Vial Case, made of the finest seal grain leather, leather lined, with glove catch. Case is handsomely finished. Has pocket for sundries. Contains two rows of 2-dr. screw-cap vials (1 row has 12 and the other row 8 vials), and the remaining space in the row is fitted with Hypodermic Syringe, two Needles and Cleaning Wires, also four small vials for Hypodermic Tablets. A leather loop in the bend of case is fitted with rubber tube containing a Graduated Clinical Thermometer. Dimensions, $7\frac{1}{4}$ in. long, $3\frac{1}{2}$ in. wide $1\frac{1}{2}$ in. thick.... \$4 00

Price, without Syringe or Thermometer 2 50

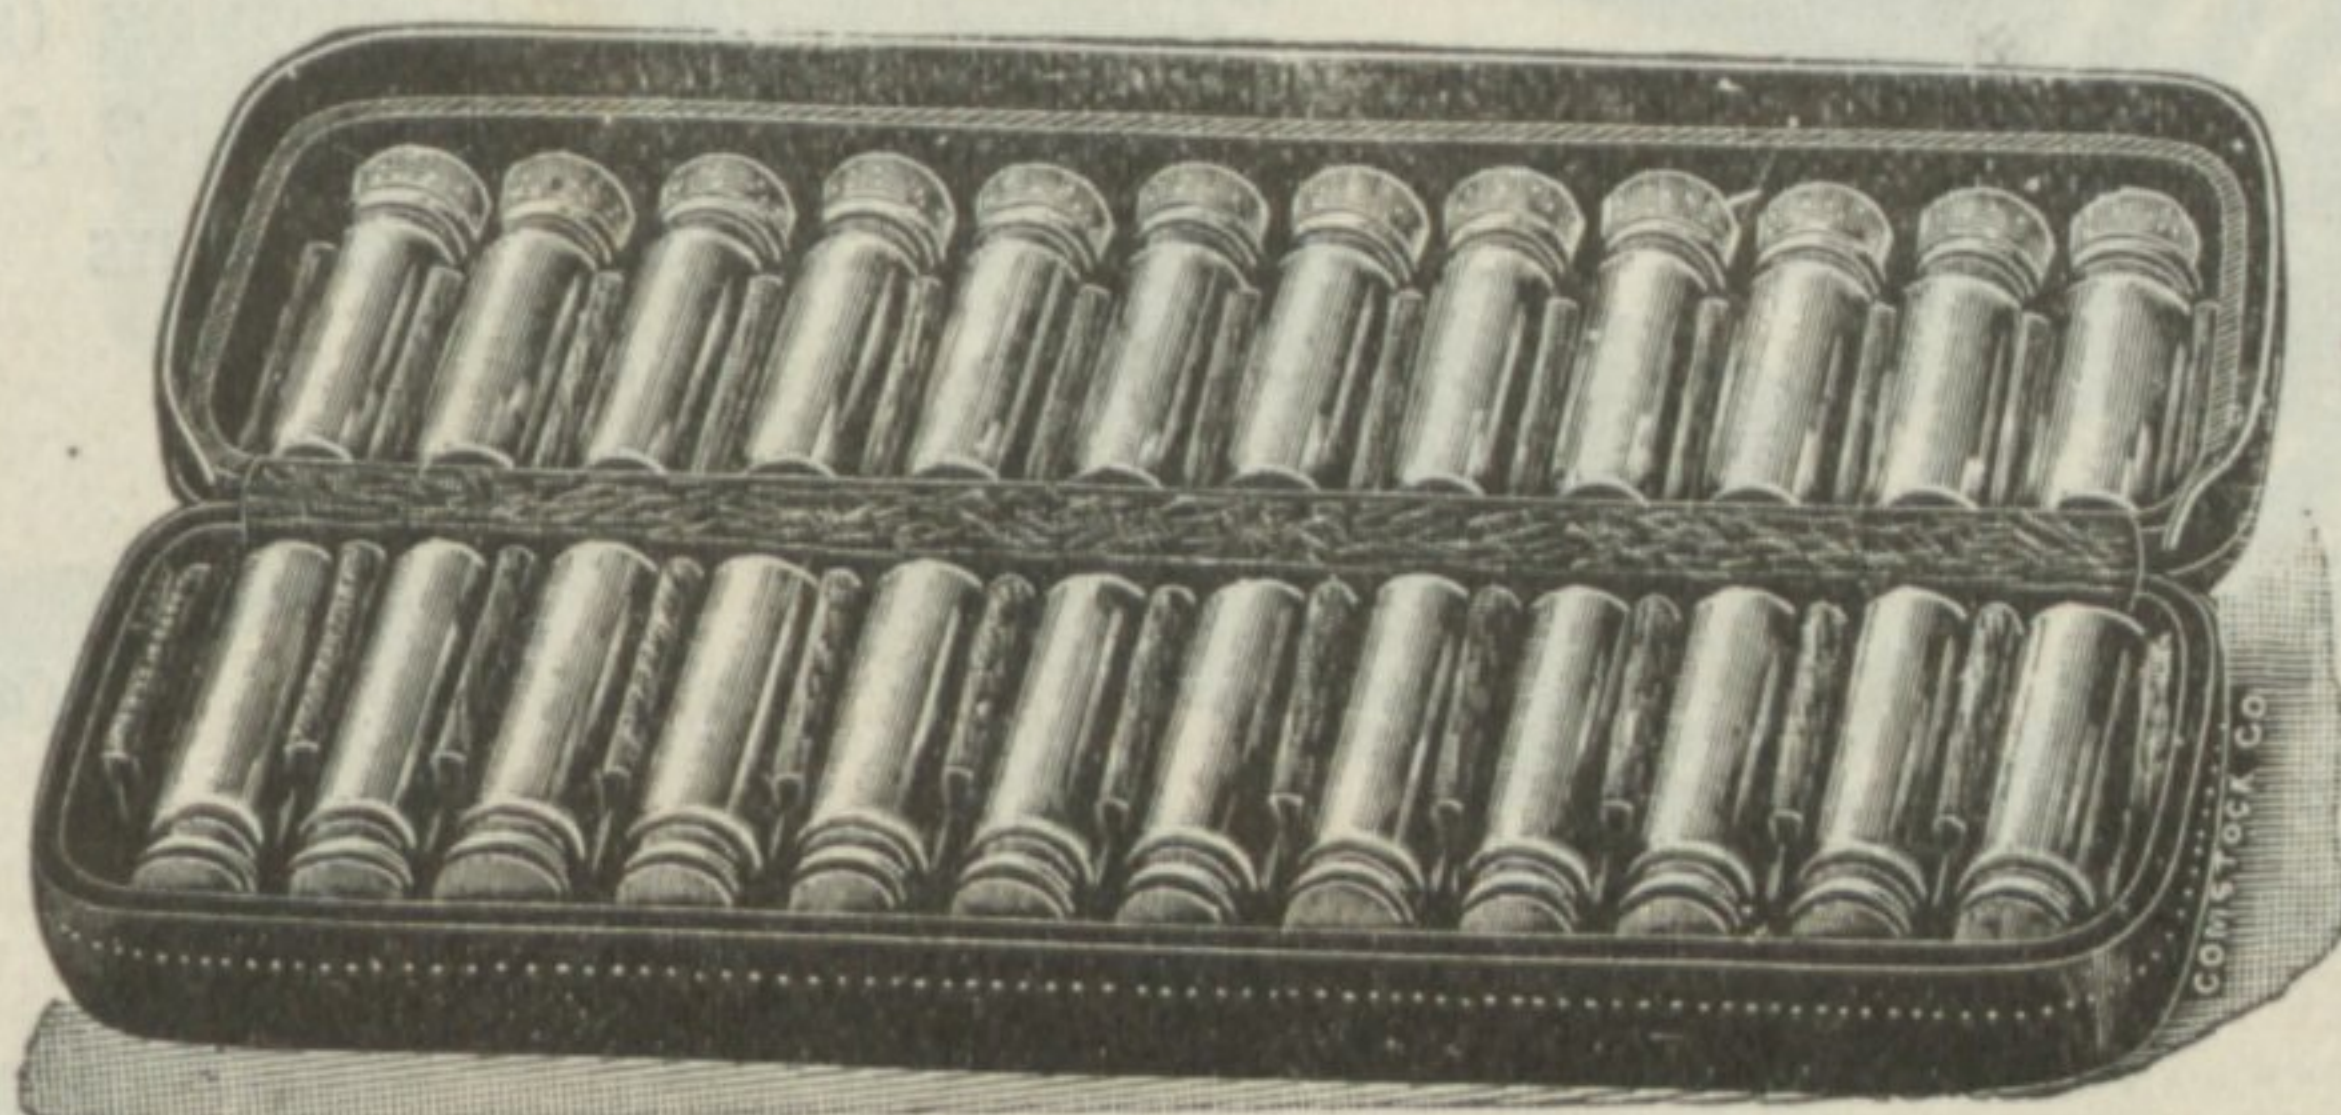

No. 24 (c) Open.

- No. 24 (c) Folding Pocket Case with clasp, 9 inches long by $3\frac{1}{2}$ inches wide when closed. Soft, flexible case, made of black or dark leather, containing one row of 10 4-dr. vials and one row of 14 2-dr. vials.
Price, empty $2 50

No. 25 (c) Closed.

- No. 25 (c) Pocket Vial Case. Made up of solid sole leather. Nothing but leather used in forming the case. Round corners, hand-stitched. Containing 24 $2\frac{1}{2}$ -dr. vials.
Price $2 75