

NT
age One)
presented it,
college train-
submitted it
nded it.
ed heated dis-proposal of the students to gulation, our ners' pay was the credit for form of a re-uld submit a ll give each
ticipate.
ion adjourned,
ored by a tea
Mansion.
l represented;
enkers, and in
was shown by

Robert F. ence from the ch, has been
y of engineer-
American Uni-than 50 teach-erican soldiers.
-week courses
neering fields;
echnical, and
tt professors educators lent sities to the ad Education
y at Shrivens-ject, attempts
vian universi-
ng to a releas

RCIAL
N.C.

Erma Hinnant of Pikeville is now vice chairman of the Women's Judiciary and chairman of the handbook committee. She has served as president of the Lanier Society and as a member of the handbook committee.

John Johnson of Raleigh, associate editor and photography editor of the Teco Echo, has been president of the Phi Sigma Pi fraternity, president of YMCA, chairman MSGA, and president of Ragsdale Hall.

Margaret Johnston of Greenville is a temporary member of Women's Judiciary and a member of the Wesley Student Council. She was vice president of the freshman class, a member and an acting president of Day Student committee.

Mary Blane Justice, vice president of Sigma Pi Alpha, has been vice president of Wilson dormitory, a college marshal and a member of the handbook committee.

Margaret Person of Luisburg president of the Home Economic Club, has been vice president of the Poe Society, second assistant treasurer of SCC, college marshal, and secretary of the Home Economics club.

The TECO ECHO

VOLUME XXI GREENVILLE, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1946 Number 6

Sixteen E. C. T. C. Seniors Make Who's Who

Sixteen of the most outstanding members of the senior class will represent East Carolina Teachers College in the 1945-46 year book "Who's Who Among Universities and Colleges." These were selected by a committee of thirteen, appointed by the regents, chosen from the faculty, the student body, and the administrative staff. The record of these throughout college life in scholarship and conduct, and promising signs of their future usefulness to business and society were the chief points considered in the selection.

A brief summary of the record of each of the sixteen is given below. Kate Earle Owen of Roseboro, president of the senior class, during her college life has been chairman of the Women's Judiciary in summer school, WAA cabinet member and dormitory head, vice president of Sigma Pi Alpha, a member of the hose committee, Tewan representative of the English club, a member of the Student Cooperative Council and Teco reporter.

Paul Arnold of Dover is a member of the YWCA cabinet and secretary, treasurer of the ACE. She has been on the executive board of the YWCA, treasurer and a member of the cabinet, and vice president of A. D. S. Mary Young Bass of Enfield is editor in chief of the Teco Echo and a member of the Student Cooperative Council. During her college life, she has been college marshal, Teco representative, chairman of the courtesy card committee, and a member of the editorial staff of the Pieces O'Eight. Last year she was co-editor of the Teco Echo and chief marshal during summer school.

Audrey Frances Banks of Elizabeth City, Fleming dormitory president and society marshal, has during her college life been freshman YWCA treasurer, a member of the house committee, and a member of Women's Judiciary.

Barbara Brewer of Red Springs, secretary of the senior class and a member of the house committee, has during her college life been vice president of the Commerce club and a member of the house committee.

Jessie Love Carter of Fayetteville is vice president of ACE, secretary, treasurer of Jarvis Forensic club, a member of the house committee, and treasurer of Women's Judiciary. She has been vice president of the Jarvis Forensic club, a member of YWCA cabinet and on the elections committee.

Martha Strawn of Concord, vice president of Alpha Sigma and secretary of the Women's Judiciary, has been music chairman of the YWCA cabinet and on the staff of Pieces O'Eight.

Erma Hinnant of Pikeville is now vice chairman of the Women's Judiciary and chairman of the handbook committee. She has served as president of the Lanier Society and as a member of the handbook committee.

Varsity Club Sweetheart Elected Tuesday

Now that our men have started coming back to E. C. T. C. the Men's Varsity Club has again been revived. It will be composed of men who have won a letter in some field of athletics prior to this year.

Those of you who were on the campus in 1942 know that there was a Varsity Club and it had many members interested in sports. Due to the war and the loss of most of our men it was discontinued in 1942.

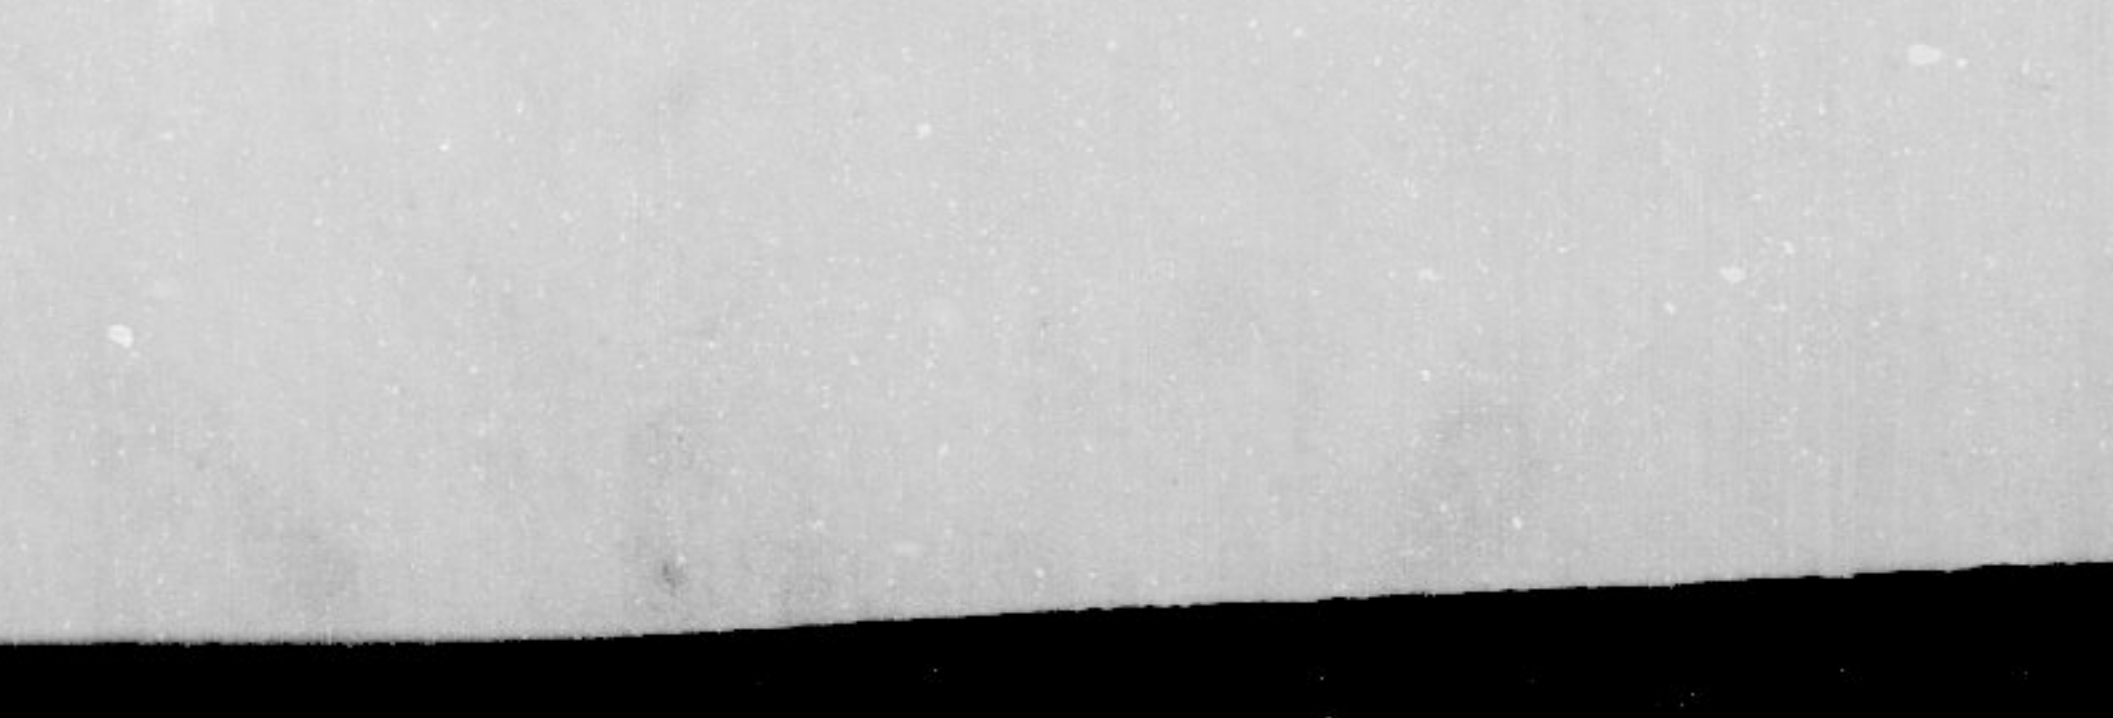

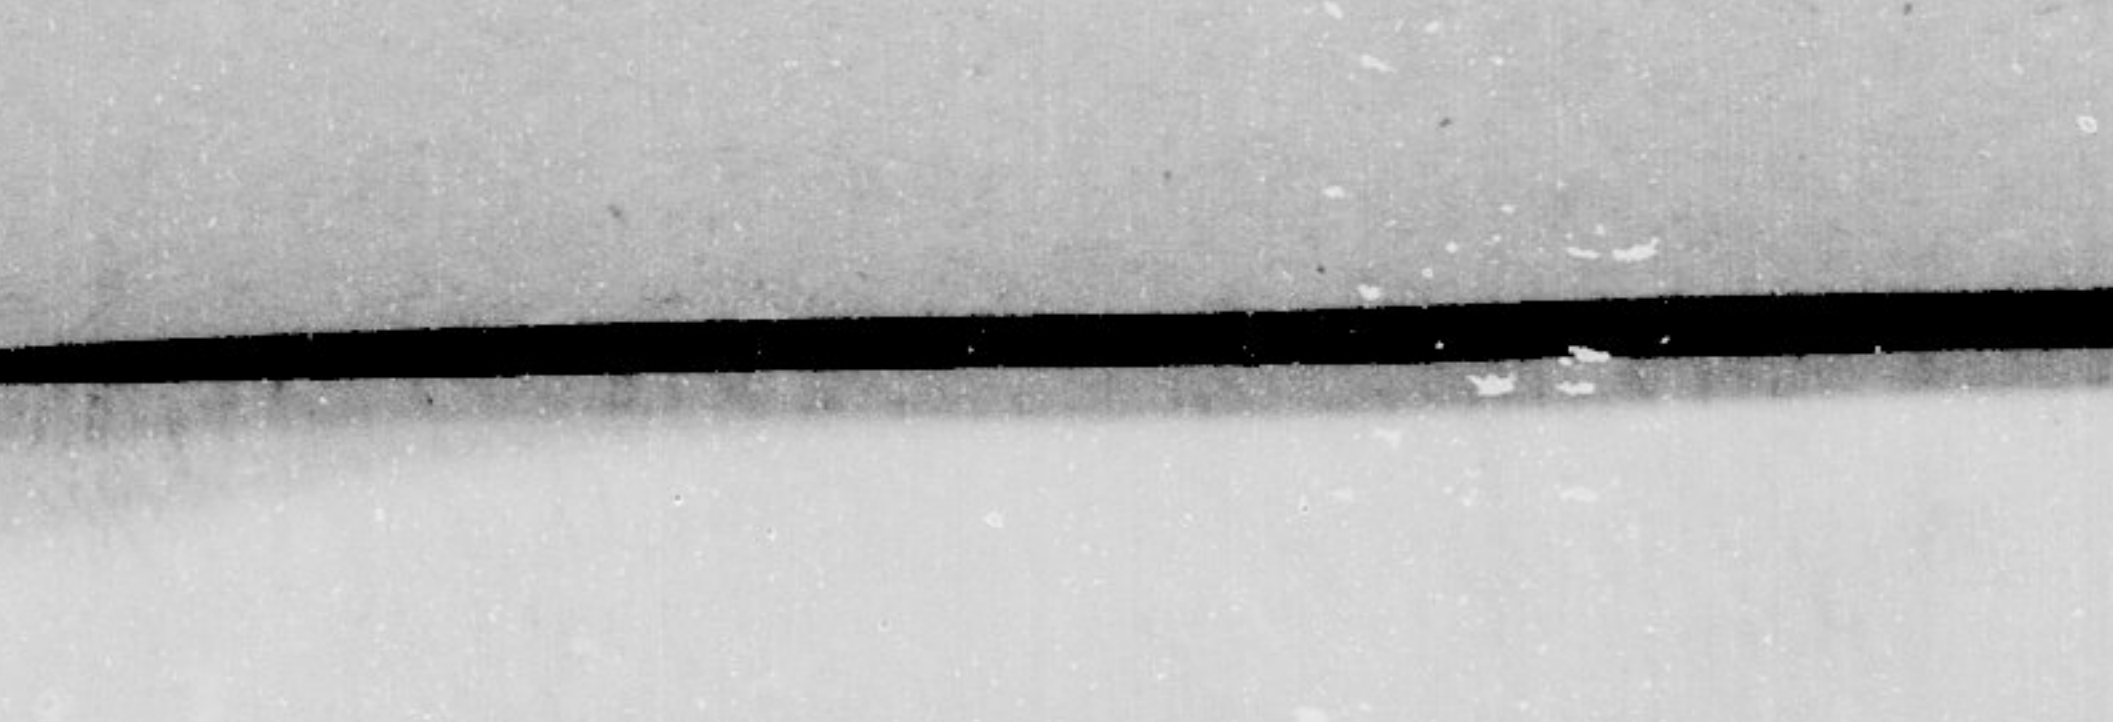

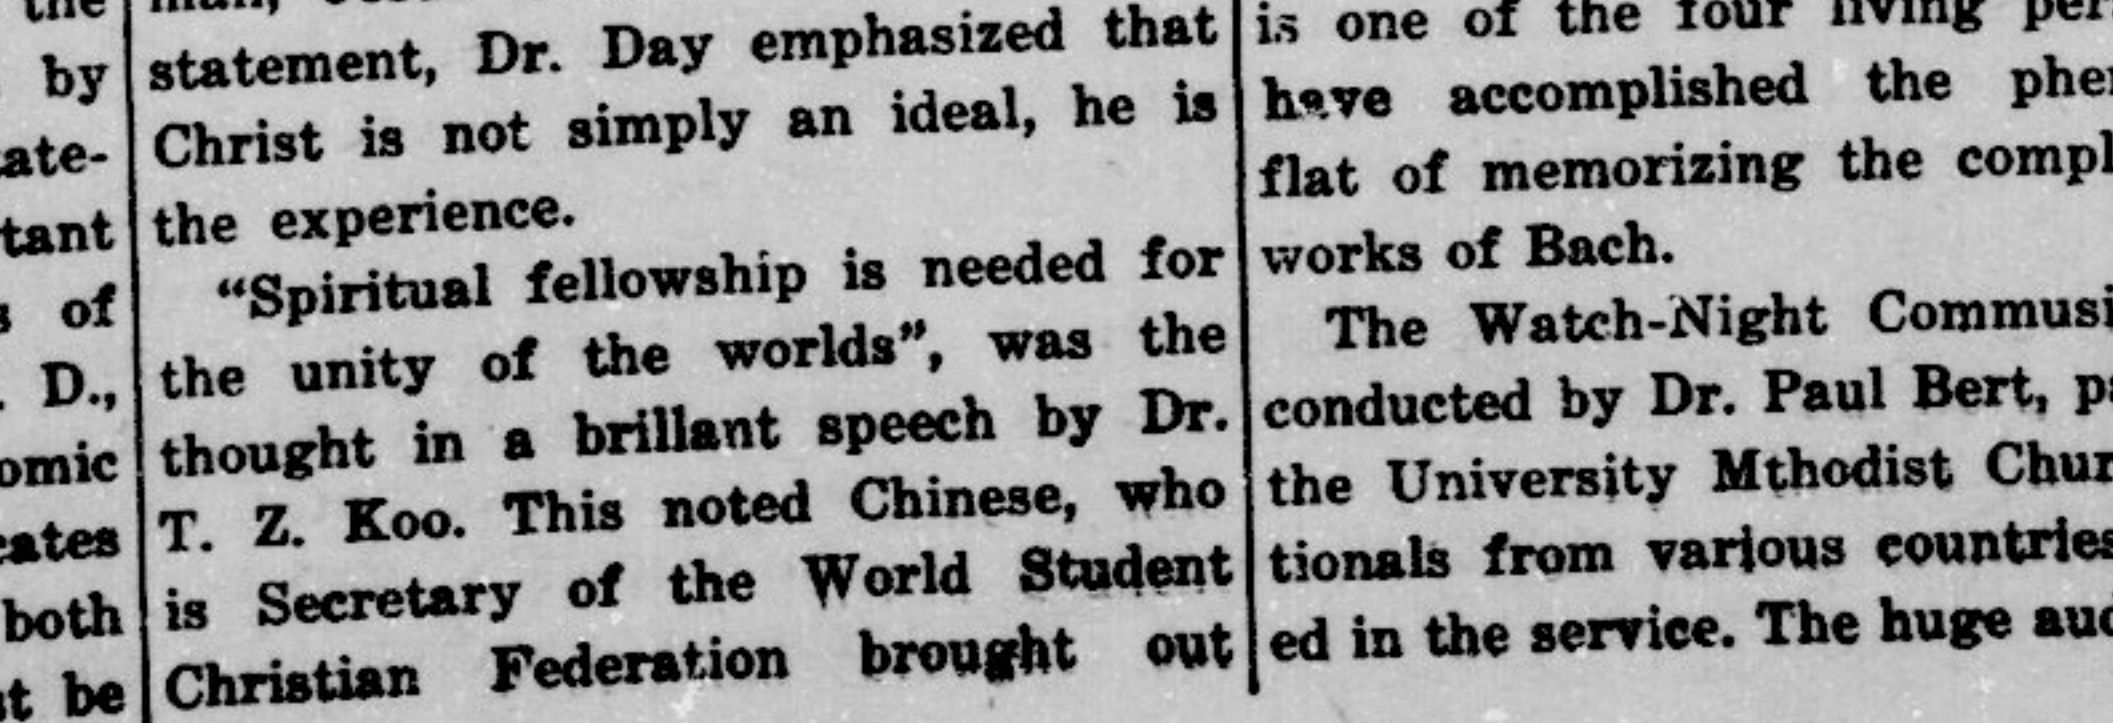

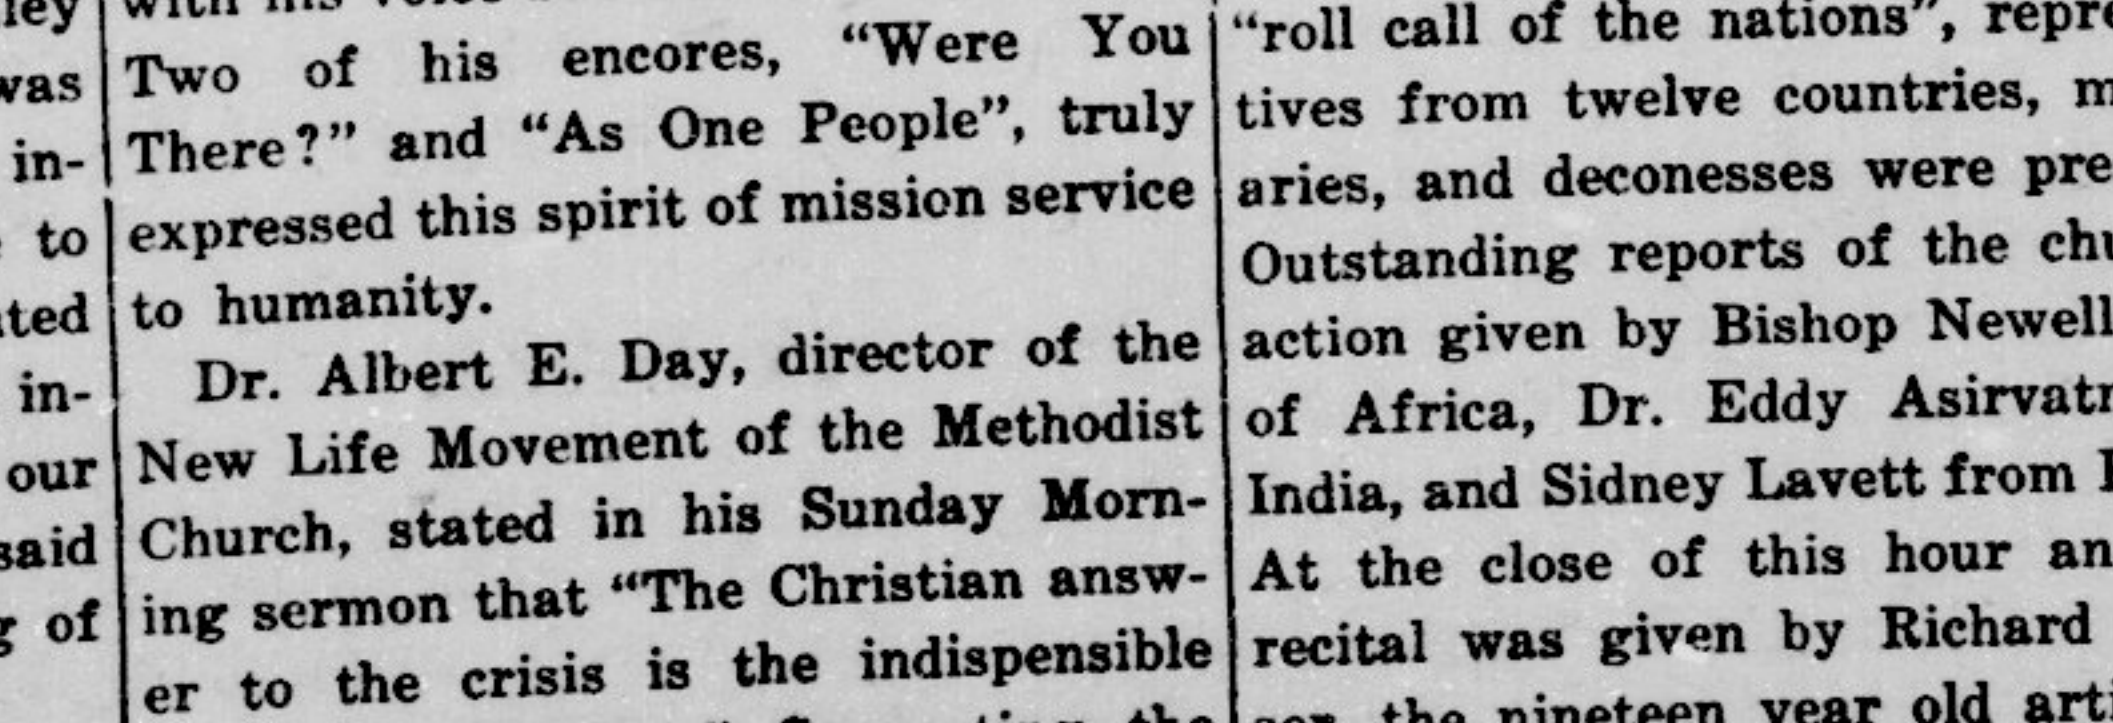

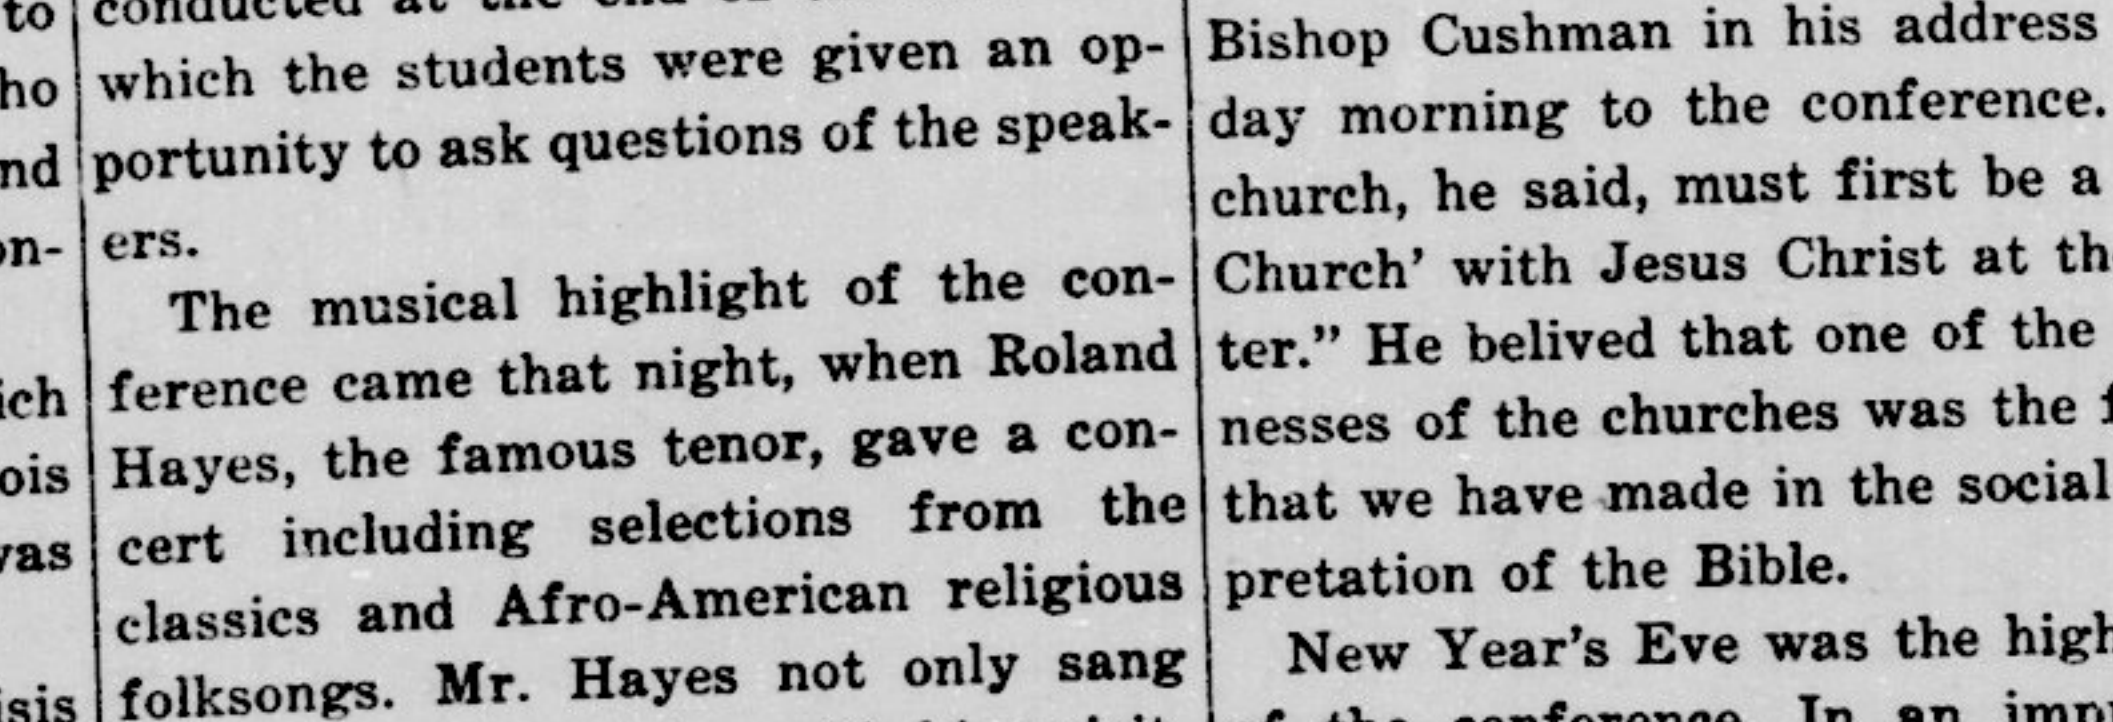

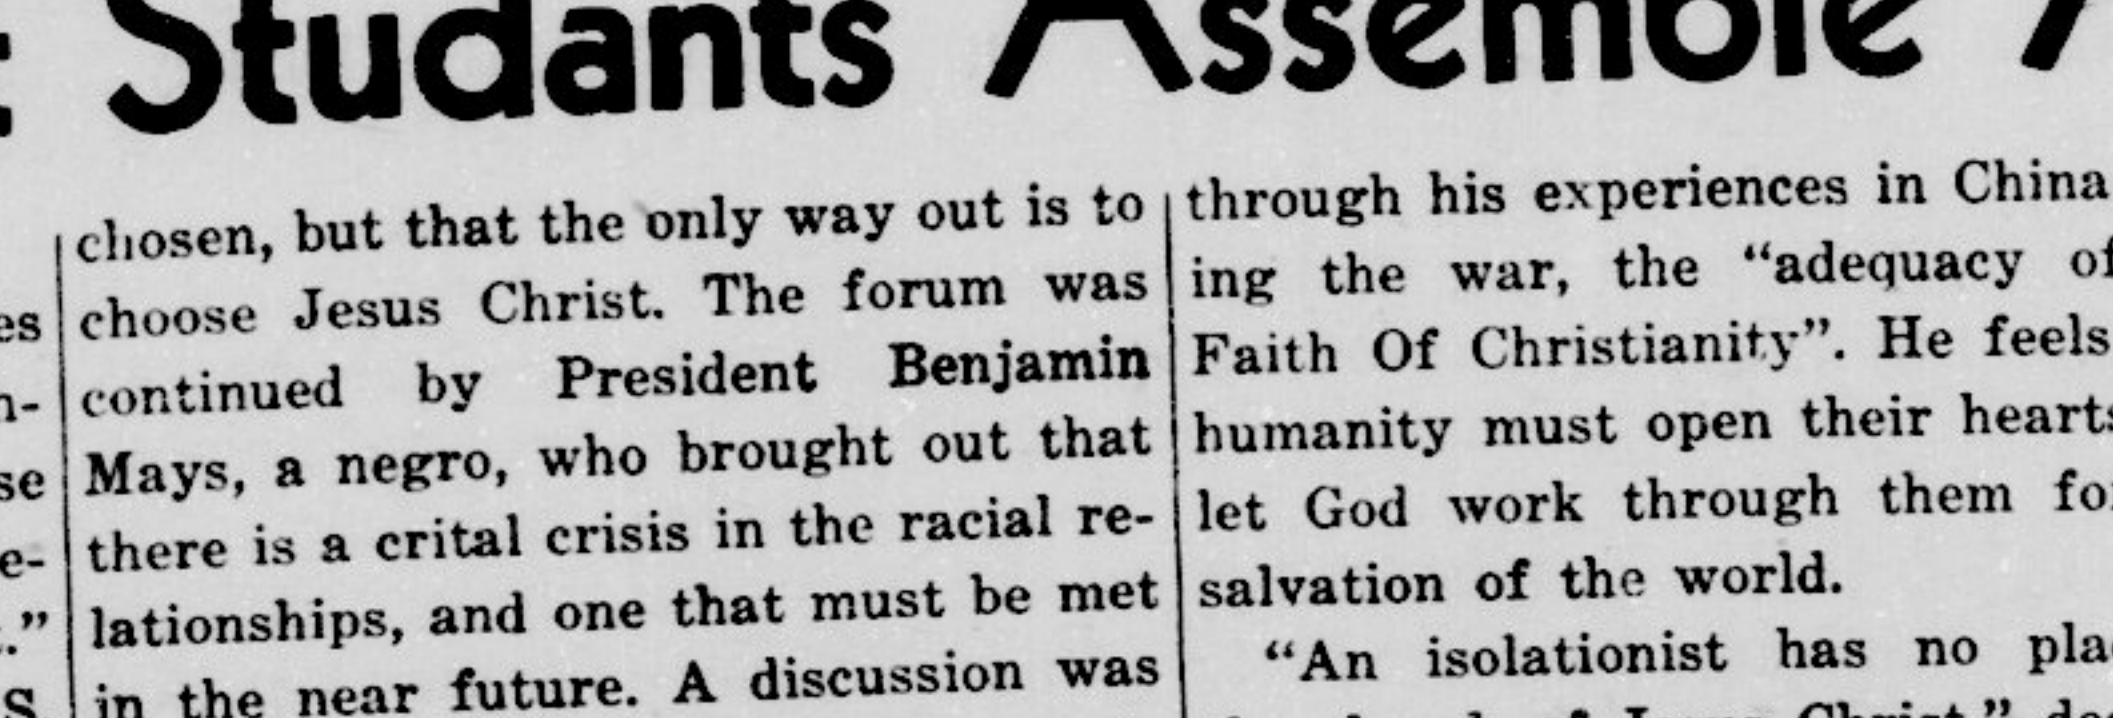

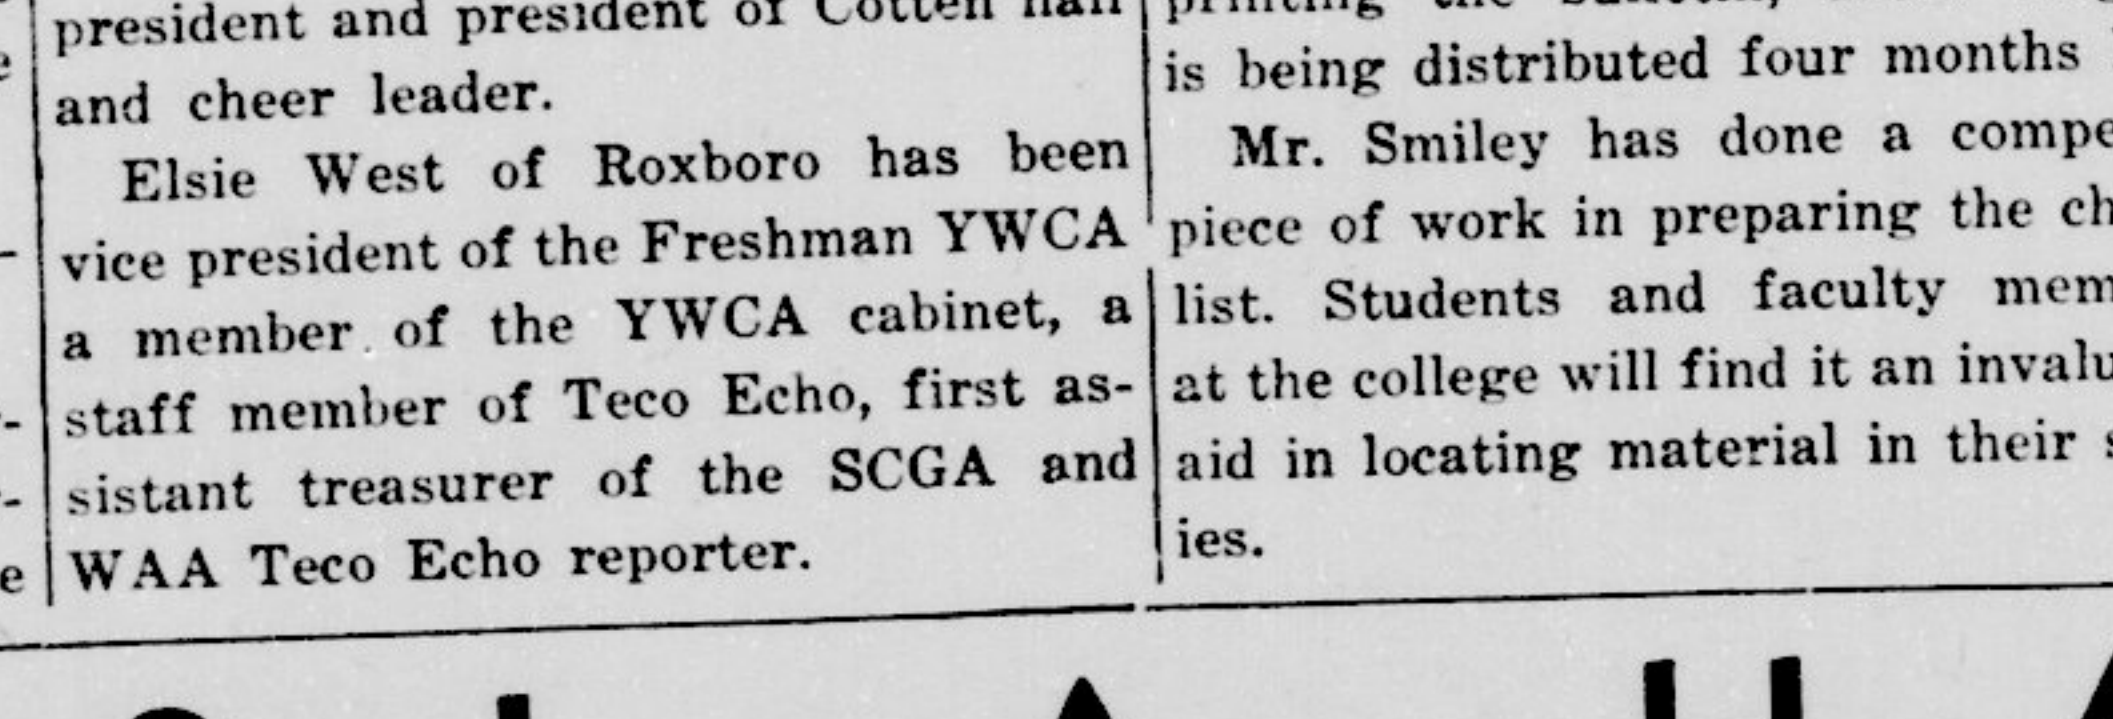

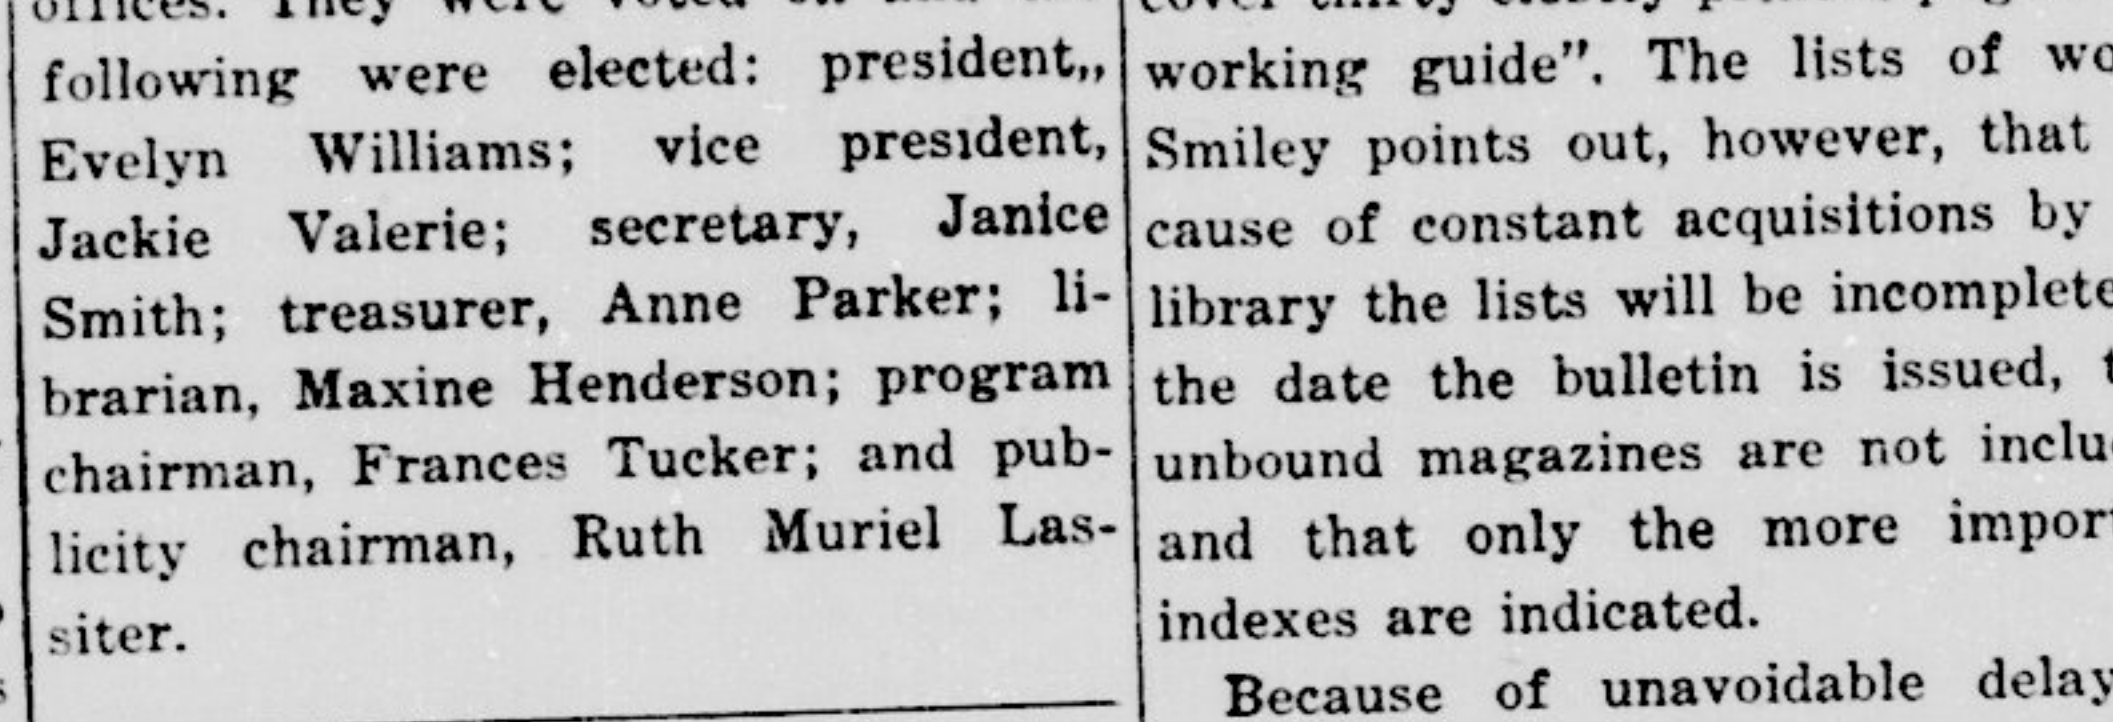

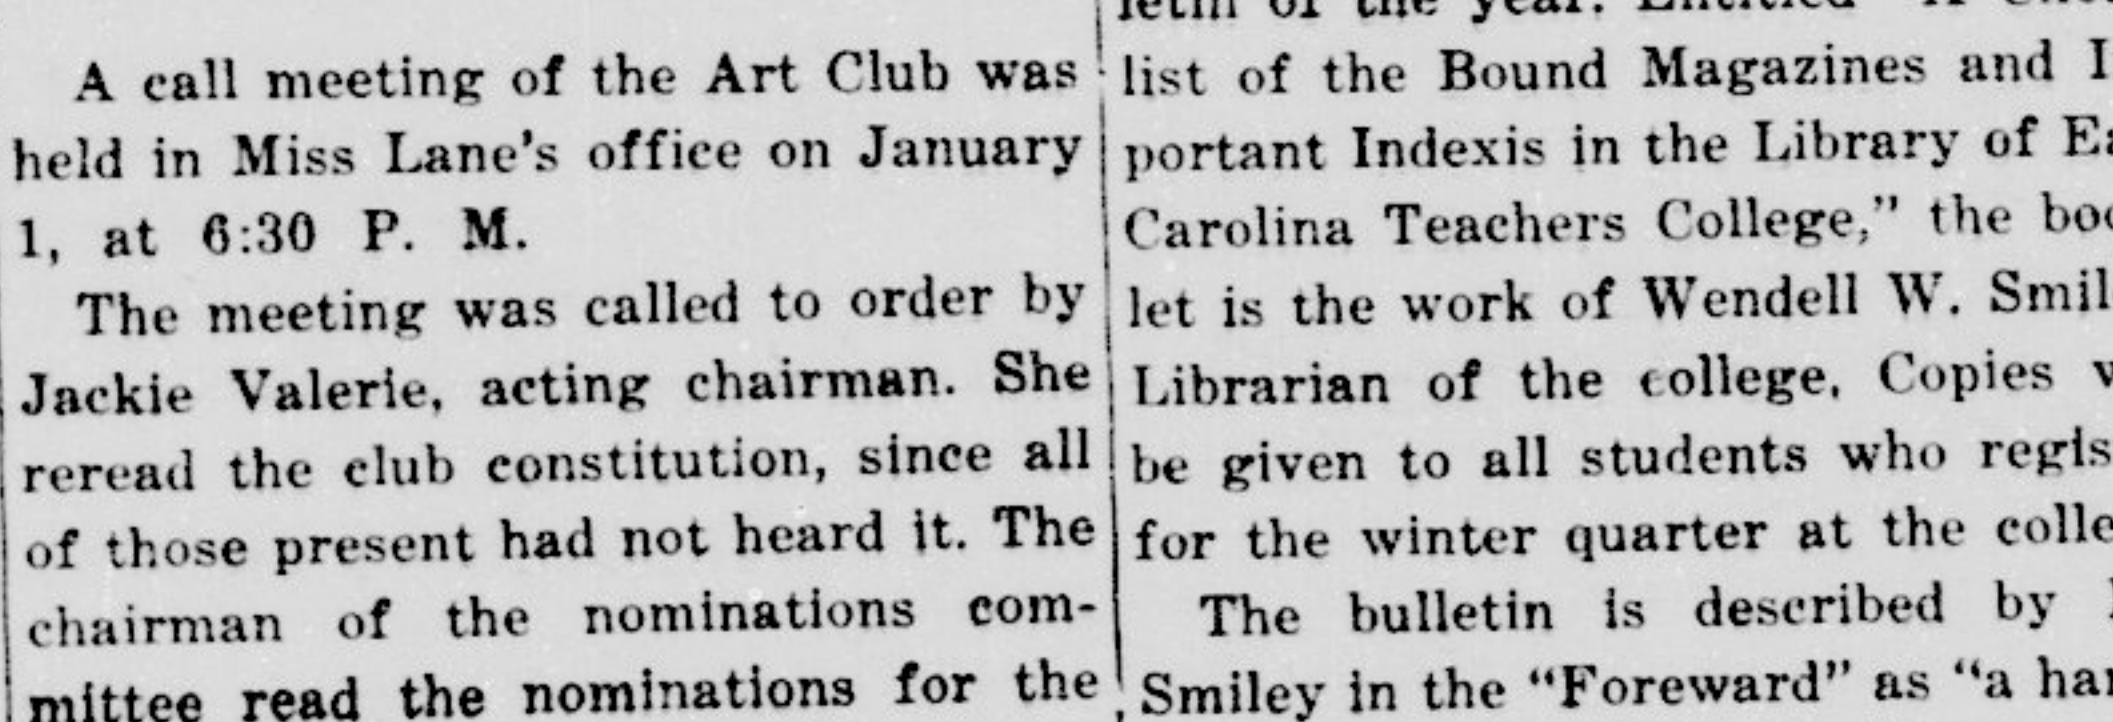

It was reorganized in December, 1945, and the officers are as follows: president, Doug Jones; Joe Williams, vice-president; and Blaney Moye, secretary and treasurer. At present there are ten old members and four new ones are waiting to be initiated. The new members are John Charlton, Blaney Moye, Jessie and James Parker. Initiation Week (Hell Week to the members) will be from Monday, January 14, through Friday, January 18. Old members who are back on the campus for the first time this quarter after an absence of years are Jimmy Gianakas, Bob Miller, Tom Cox, Adrian Brown, Leo Burks, Earl Smith and Doug Jones.

To outsiders, the most interesting part of this club is the dance it gives. It is quite an unusual dance, in the first place, it will be a boy break affair; all boys on the campus are invited, but will not be admitted with dates; a limited number of bids will be sold to the girls; all girls must list the name of their date when signing up for bid and no girl can bring a boy who is enrolled at E. C. T. C. to the dance.

Too, the members have selected what is known as Varsity Sweetheart. She is a girl on the campus and I guess the suspense will kill us all as it is kept a secret till the day of the dance. Of course, the sweetheart will know ahead of time; four hours to be exact. This girl will be someone interested in sports and popular among our athletes.

It is a shame this club has so many secrets but nevertheless, lets show these men we're glad to have them back and support them whole heartedly.

The Poe society. Barbara Parker of Ahsokie is chairman of the Women's Judiciary. During her college life she has been vice

Romeo And Juliet Drama From New Presented Tuesday Night

Twenty Graduate At Christmas

Seventeen students graduated Christmas receiving their A. B. Degree. These were: Aldine Barnhill, Commerce-Math; Fay Midyette Bond, Primary; Lillian Callis, Primary; Leslie Chadwick, Math-Science; Vivian Jones Cherry, French-Science; Ernest Chesson, Science-French; Mary Alice Cohoon, Home Econ.-Soc. Science; Delton Creech, Music-History; Garnette Crocker, Home Econ.-Soc. Science; Mildred Horne, Eng.-French; Maxine Pleasant, Home Econ.-Science; Elizabeth Register, Home Econ.-Science; Jean Scarborough, Physical Educ.-History; Marjorie Smith, Home Econ.-History; Sue Murray Thomas, Primary; and Mildred Wellons, Grammar.

Three of the graduating students received their B. S. Degree. David Owens, English-Soc. Science; Frances Jena Ratcliffe, Home Econ.-Soc. Science; and Matilda Whitley Warrick, Home Econ.-Science.

Program Given By Music Students

A beautiful and inspiring program of Christmas music was given in the Austin Auditorium at East Carolina Teachers College on Sunday evening, December 16. Students of the Department of Music, the College Chorus, the Women's Chorus and a quartet playing brass instruments too part. Dan E. Vornholt directed the Women's Chorus; Karl V. Gilbert, the College Chorus; Harold A. McDougle trained the brass quartet.

The program included a wide selection of Christmas music, such as folk songs, old hymns and carols and selections from Handel's Messiah. Volists were Madeline Bedsaul of High Point, violinist; and Sally Margaret Johnston of Wilmington, June Brandenburg of Warrington, Mary Blane Justice of Norfolk, Virginia and Jean Robertson of Spring Hope, vocalists.

The closing number "O Come All Ye Faithful" was sung by the audience and the two choruses, with an accompaniment of strings and brass instruments.

"Romeo and Juliet." Shakespeare's tragedy of youthful love, will be the first entertainment to be given at the college during the winter term under the auspices of the Entertainment Committee. The National Classic Theatre of New York will present the play here on Tuesday evening, January 15, at 8:00 o'clock in the Wright Auditorium.

The National Classic Theatre is under the direction of Clare Tree Major, a well-known figure in the theatre of this country. She has for a number of years been known for the excellence of her work as producer and director. The company is now making a coast-to-coast tour of the country and is presenting classic drama, particularly in high school and colleges, in many parts of the nation.

The production, directed by Mrs. Major, bids fair to be of a high order of excellence. Special costumes were designed by Marian DePew, for a number of years designer for Clare Tree Major productions. Scenery was designed by Irving Morrow. The cast is a carefully chosen one. Olga Balish as Juliet and Stewart Long as Romeo take the leading roles. Justine Johnston plays the nurse; and Charles Gilbert, Mercutio. Special lighting effects are also being arranged.

"Romeo and Juliet" has since Shakespeare's day been one of the most beloved of his dramas. Almost every eminent actress aspires to be a famous Juliet. The play has had a long and interesting stage history.

During Shakespeare's day the play was "sundrie times publicly acted, by the Kings Maiesties Servants at the Globe." It was without doubt popular in England until the closing of the theaters by the Puritans and was one of the first Shakespearean plays to be revived after the reopening of the theaters in the Restoration.

During the Seventeenth Century it was presented in various mutilated versions. James Howard's gave the play a happy ending and Thomas Otway gave the central incidents a Roman setting and the play a new name in a version called "Caius Marius."

Theophilus Gibber and David Garrick in the Eighteenth Century used Shakespeare's lines but revised the tomb scene so as to have Juliet wake before Romeo's death.

The Nineteenth Century gave the world some of the great productions of the drama. Charlotte Cushman, greatest tragic actress of her time, played the part of Romeo with success. Among famous Juliets were the beautiful and gifted Adelaide Neilson; Helena Modjeska, famous Polish actress; Ellen Terry; Mary Anderson; Ada Rehan; and Patrick Campbell. Famous Romeos were Sir Henry Irving and Forbes Robertson.

In the Twentieth Century there have been a number of notable productions. Marlowe and Sothern were famous in the roles of the "star-crossed" lovers. Jane Cowl, Katherine Cornell, and Vivien Leigh have appeared in Broadway productions. Famous actors who have appeared on the modern American stage as Romeo include Maurice Evans, Laurence Olivier, and Basil Rathbone.

About ten years ago Irving Thalberg, motion picture producer, screened a lavish production. Norma Shearer as Juliet, Leslie Howard as Romeo, John Barrymore as Mercutio, and Edna Mae Oliver as the Nurse played the major parts.

Thus the passing years has served to increase rather than to diminish the popularity of "Romeo and Juliet." A new production is always welcomed with pleasure.

Next Tuesday evening students at the college will be given an opportunity to see a competent performance of one of the most popular dramas in the English language. Many students who have never seen a Shakespearean play on the stage have expressed their gratification at being given the opportunity to be present at "Romeo and Juliet."

A large crowd is expected to attend the performance. Indications are that a number of out-of-town people will be in the audience and that several groups of students from near-by

Officers Elected At Call Meeting Of Art Club

A call meeting of the Art Club was held in Miss Lane's office on January 1, at 6:30 P. M.

The meeting was called to order by Jackie Valerie, acting chairman. She reread the club constitution, since all of those present had not heard it. The chairman of the nominations committee read the nominations for the offices. They were voted on and the following were elected: president, Evelyn Williams; vice president, Jackie Valerie; secretary, Janice Smith; treasurer, Anne Parker; librarian, Maxine Henderson; program chairman, Frances Tucker; and publicity chairman, Ruth Muriel Laster.

president and president of Cotten hall and cheer leader.

Elsie West of Roxboro has been vice president of the Freshman YWCA a member of the YWCA cabinet, a staff member of Teco Echo, first assistant treasurer of the SCGA and WAA Teco Echo reporter.

Bound Magazines Listed In Bulletin

East Carolina Teachers College issued this week the third college bulletin of the year. Entitled "A Checklist of the Bound Magazines and Important Indexes in the Library of East Carolina Teachers College," the booklet is the work of Wendell W. Smiley, Librarian of the college. Copies will be given to all students who register for the winter quarter at the college.

The bulletin is described by Mr. Smiley in the "Foreword" as "a handy cover thirty closely printed pages. Mr. working guide". The lists of works Smiley points out, however, that because of constant acquisitions by the library the lists will be incomplete on the date the bulletin is issued, that unbound magazines are not included, and that only the more important indexes are indicated.

Because of unavoidable delay in printing the bulletin, dated August, is being distributed four months late.

Mr. Smiley has done a competent piece of work in preparing the checklist. Students and faculty members at the college will find it an invaluable aid in locating material in their studies.

Miss Dempsey Rep. Pi Omega Pi Musical Christmas

Miss Audrey V. Dempsey of Greeley attended on December 27-28 in Cleveland, Ohio, the National Council Meeting of Pi Omega Pi, business education fraternity. As national editor of the organization, Miss Dempsey took a leading part in council meetings and was a speaker at a joint banquet of Pi Omega Pi and the National Business Teachers Association.

Miss Dempsey, a daughter of R. G. Dempsey of Greeley, was educated at Colorado State Teachers College of Education and holds a master's degree from the institution. She has taught for several years at East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, North Carolina, state college for the training of teachers. There, she is sponsor of the local branch of Pi Omega Pi and president of the North Carolina Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honor society for women teachers.

As editor for Pi Omega Pi, Miss Dempsey prepares the handbook and the news letter of the organization, which has 61 branches in colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Phi Sigma Gets New Club Room

During the regular meeting of the Phi Sigma of the Sigma Pi Alpha held on November 20, 1945, and December 13, 1945, elections, interesting programs, and the admittance of new members were considered.

Dorothy Nell Henderson and Bernice Steele were welcomed unanimously into the club. The following officers were elected: Rachel Brooks, secretary and treasurer; Ruth Carroll, representative to the Teco; and J. Strickland, representative to the Teco Echo.

Vice-president Mary Blane Justice told the members about the new club room on the third floor in Austin Building, which has been cleaned and painted. Furnishing it will be left up to the members.

Y. M. C. A. Welcome Three New Officers

Members of the Young Mens Christian Association held their first meeting of the new year, Tuesday evening, January 8, 1946. Jack Johnson, treasurer and only remaining officer at the start of the winter quarter, called the meeting to order. An election of new officers was held to fill the recent vacancies that had developed.

The men elected to new post are as follows: Henry Harris, president; John Heath, vice president; Joe Tew, secretary. Following the election several items of business were discussed. Plans are being made to set a definite time for the Y. M. C. A. to meet and to insure proper functioning of the organization. Membership of all students is welcomed.

Home Ec. Teachers Discuss Students

Supervising teachers of home economics who work in high schools with practice teachers from East Carolina Teachers College are holding a meeting today, January 4, 1946 in the new Classroom Building on the campus. Miss Mabel Lacey of the home economics faculty of the college is serving as chairman of the group. The program of the day includes a discussion of various problems in student teaching.

Those attending the meeting are Mrs. Venetia H. Pentecost of Ayden, Miss Maude Ketchum of Robersonville, Miss Verna Belle Lowrie of Williamston, and Misses Alice Strawn and Louise Swann of Greenville.

Methodist Students Assemble At Urbana

by Bill Tucker

A thousand eager young faces looked up at the speaker with searching eyes. "The cries of today arose because we failed in our interpretation of the Gospel of Jesus Christ." These words by Bishop Ralph S. Cushman caused a deep silence to fall softly over the 1400 students who represented forty-two states and twelve countries in the Third National Methodist Student Conference.

The theme of the conference, which was held at the University of Illinois from December 28 to January 1, was "Christianity Meeting The Crisis."

In the opening address, "The Crisis of Our Time", Bishop G. Bromley Axnam indicated that the crisis was world wide and stressed that our institutions of today are inadequate to meet man's moral needs. He pointed out especially the weakness of our international organization and our churches. The answer to the crisis said Bishop Axnam is an honest giving of self to Christ.

A town hall forum was opened the first morning of the conference by Dr. Georgia Harkness with the statement that there are two important dates which affect the destinies of man, the birth of Christ in 4 A. D., and the dropping of the first atomic bomb August 6, 1945. She advocates that God has given his people both good and evil, one of which must be chosen, but that the only way out is to choose Jesus Christ. The forum was continued by President Benjamin Mays, a negro, who brought out that there is a critical crisis in the racial relationships, and one that must be met in the near future. A discussion was conducted at the end of the forum in which the students were given an opportunity to ask questions of the speakers.

The musical highlight of the conference came that night, when Roland Hayes, the famous tenor, gave a concert including selections from the classics and Afro-American religious folksongs. Mr. Hayes not only sang with his voice but also with his spirit. Two of his encores, "Were You There?" and "As One People", truly expressed this spirit of mission service to humanity.

Dr. Albert E. Day, director of the New Life Movement of the Methodist Church, stated in his Sunday Morning sermon that "The Christian answer to the crisis is the indispensable man, Jesus Christ." Supporting the statement, Dr. Day emphasized that Christ is not simply an ideal, he is the experience.

"Spiritual fellowship is needed for the unity of the worlds", was the thought in a brilliant speech by Dr. T. Z. Koo. This noted Chinese, who is Secretary of the World Student Christian Federation brought out through his experiences in China during the war, the "adequacy of the Faith of Christianity". He feels that humanity must open their hearts and let God work through them for the salvation of the world.

"An isolationist has no place in the church of Jesus Christ," declared Bishop Cushman in his address Monday morning to the conference. "The church, he said, must first be a 'Holy Church' with Jesus Christ at the center." He believed that one of the weaknesses of the churches was the failure that we have made in the social interpretation of the Bible.

New Year's Eve was the high point of the conference. In an impressive "roll call of the nations", representatives from twelve countries, missionaries, and decesses were presented. Outstanding reports of the church in action given by Bishop Newell Booth of Africa, Dr. Eddy Asirvatnam of India, and Sidney Lavett from Europe.

At the close of this hour an organ recital was given by Richard Ellisasser, the nineteen year old artist who is one of the four living persons to have accomplished the phenomenal feat of memorizing the complete 219 works of Bach.

The Watch-Night Communion was conducted by Dr. Paul Bert, pastor of the University Methodist Church. Nationals from various countries assisted in the service. The huge auditorium was in darkness save for a single spot light on the beautiful white altar. In the background music played softly and one could feel the Spirit of Christ among the students as they reverently took their seats. This was in truth a service of communion with God and with one another. At the close of the service the large congregation went out quietly and it was not until they were in the vestibule that one heard the greetings, "Happy New Year!"

The conference came to its spiritual climax Tuesday morning in the closing session when Professor W. A. Smart of the Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia, answered the question for each delegate, "What Shall I Do With Jesus?" Stating the conviction to which the conference in its earlier sessions had inevitably been brought, that humanity is now facing its supreme crisis and briefly summarizing the ways in which the church is the answer to the current needs of the world. Dr. Smart challenged each delegate to find for himself in Jesus Christ the inspiration and the method by which he could fulfill his own part facing the crisis.

The following students from E. C. T. C. attended the national conference: Emily Roberson, Rosa Lancaster, Bill Tucker. Miss Mammie Chandler, director of the Wesley Foundation also attended.

Housing Facilities Should Be Provided For Returning Students

by Jack Jackson

Have you noticed the increase of men on the campus? Of course you have and aren't we all glad to see them? Yes, the boys are coming back and what have we done for them since they have been gone? The only regret I have in seeing them return is that we didn't have any place for them to stay when they got back to register. What little dormitory space we had was already filled. It has been very difficult for them to find rooms in Greenville, some having to live many blocks from the college. This is very inconvenient when they have to take their meals in the dining hall. Wouldn't it have been much better if we had had a place on the campus for them? Some of them were even going to leave after arriving here because they could not find rooms and I dare say the number to come would have been increased by fifty percent had we only had a men's dormitory.

Now I know that there has been talk of a new dormitory but talk doesn't build buildings. It is time, yes indeed, past time to push this issue and get what this college needs most. I admit, the fact that we need many other things: gymnasium, athletic equipment, classroom space, and many others but to induce men to come to a college their first must of all be a place for them to live. If the college is no good, of course they will not come anyway, but we have a good college, just a little lacking in men students. If we get the men we can have a better sports program.

East Carolina Teachers College is just beginning a great stride up to heights never reached before. Next year there will be a full time coach for all sports including boxing. If we get the men we are bound to be our own best step to get a men's dormitory.

Lack Of Cooperation And School Spirit Shown At Entertainments

Students should consider it a privilege to be able to attend the numerous entertainments given by noted people brought to this campus.

All too often in the past, the students have failed to turn out in large numbers for the more important entertainments which are brought to the college each quarter. Frequently less than half the student body have attended these concerts, while the others indifferently remained away.

As an excuse for this attitude usually some of the students say that the "do not understand what the singers are singing" or that they "do not like classical music" or some other such excuse.

These entertainments are brought here not only for the entertainment of the students, faculty and townspeople, but also to help the students cultivate an appreciation for fine music. If all the students would take an interest in these entertainments and try to learn to enjoy and appreciate them, they would soon find that they really do enjoy them.

From now on students, let's start having an all out attendance at the major entertainments sponsored by the Entertainment Committee.

Opportunity Is Yours If You Will Grasp It

We welcome the freshmen to our college and may find as others have that it holds great opportunities. Many of you are new to college life and have to make adjustments to the new world in which you live. For some this will be harder than for others. Joining in extra-curricular activities will give you a chance to develop your talent as well as stimulate you in your regular studies. It will also help you develop that thing we all have and want to make as attractive as possible—personality. To realize the many advantages that E. C. T. C. offers, you must do your part. Don't linger around waiting for someone to make friends with you, but go to them. They will respond in a friendly way as there is a great feeling of cooperation between each other.

Freedom of opportunity is what our forefathers fought for—democracy. In the colleges of today, are the citizens of tomorrow. May they think and act in terms of the principals set before them.

Please Help Us Keep Back Campus Clean

Have you been out on the campus and really noticed things? I walked down back campus today with a very critical eye. There were dozens and dozens of pieces of paper around and maybe a piece of half eaten fruit here and there. That doesn't look so good and it wouldn't look good at all to any visitors we might have on our campus.

Of course I know we have negroes employed here that have that as part of their jobs to keep the campus clean. But since employees are so hard to get now, couldn't we help by thinking twice before we throw down paper? That would mean less time that the men would have to spend picking up paper and enable them to use their time in making much needed repairs.

Let's remember to THINK!

Duke Ellington Chosen As Top Jazz Band For Second Year

The inimitable Duke Ellington has been chosen for the second consecutive year as the top arranger and his band as the top jazz band in Esquire's 1946 All-American Jazz Selections.

And the jazz stylists Benny Goodman, Louis Armstrong, Red Norvo and Coleman Hawkins have been picked for the third consecutive year as the top specialists in the jazz world. . . . three-time winners of one of jazz's most coveted awards, the 1946 Gold "Eskey" Statuette, signifying All-American rating.

The complete list of the ranking jazzmen of the year as picked by Esquire's nationally known Board of Experts. . . . all winners of the 1946 Gold "Eskeys". . . . are: Cootie Williams, trumpet; Bill Harris, trombone; Benny Carter, alto saxophone; Coleman Hawkins, tenor saxophone; Benny Goodman, clarinet; King Cole, piano; Oscar Moore, guitar; Dave Tough, drums; Chubby Jackson, string bass; Red Norvo, vibraharp; Duke Ellington, arranger; Duke Ellington, band; Louis Armstrong, male vocalist; Ella Fitzgerald and Mildred Bailey, tied, female vocalist.

The jazzmen who will receive Silver "Eskey" Statuettes are: Charlie Shavers, trumpet; Vic Dickenson, trombone; Johnny Hodges, alto saxophone; Don Byas, tenor saxophone; Barney Bigard, clarinet; Teddy Wilson, piano; Remo Palmieri, guitar; Gene Krupa, drums; Slam Stewart, bass; Stuff Smith, violin; Billy Strayhorn, arranger; Woody Herman, band; King Cole, male vocalist; Billie Holiday, female vocalist.

The Bronze Award All-American New Stars. . . . who, in a new method of selection, were picked by last year's Gold Award winners are: Pete Candoli, trumpet; J. J. Johnson, trombone; Charlie Parker, alto saxophone; Charlie Ventura, tenor saxophone; Jimmy Hamilton, clarinet; Erroll Garner, piano; Bill de Arango, guitar; J. C. Heard, drums; Junior Raglin, bass; Ray Perry, violin; Ralph Burns, arranger; Woody Herman, band; Billy Eckstine, male vocalist and Frances Wayne, female vocalist.

In the February Esquire. . . . the 1946 Jazz Issue. . . . a 15-page section will be devoted to commentaries and photographs of the jazz award winners and to comprehensive articles covering the American Jazz Scene.

As an additional contribution to the appreciation of good American jazz, Esquire has selected twelve of the above individual award winners to appear as soloists in a special one hour broadcast on January 16

. . . a coast-to-coast All-American jazz session over the complete American Broadcast Company network from 9-10 P. M., E. S. T. These soloists will be backed up by the top-ranking Duke Ellington and Woody Herman bands, plus the King Cole Trio. . . . and Master of Ceremonies will be the radio and motion picture star, Orson Welles.

To The Editor

TO THE EDITOR:

The modern age of Superman and jet planes is here, and ECTC still has only one pay telephone for four dormitories. Do you suppose we could rate some more?

J. Strickland

Scumming

By The Keyhole Korrespondent

Well, hello here! We are back again after those fine Xmas holidays. We are back with a happy mind too because with all the men here this quarter, we don't think the Ole Keyhole Korrespondent will have any trouble diggin' up dirt. In fact we really think the dirt might be flyin'.

That all reminds us to warn you guys and gals—you'd better start numbering the trees down Wilson Hill way and put in reservations. There are great days, or should we say nights, ahead!

Have you noticed all the sparklers that don't the third finger-left hand of so many of the girls? There is Edna Earle Moore, Margaret Wiggs, Frances Moore, Steva Dupree, Marjorie Suggs, and then just more and more.

We are wonderin' how long Jack Johnson will be wearing that pretty frat pin. We think that some fem will have it before many days.

What is Jackie V. gonna do—now that she is free again?

Who is Doug Jones dating? We haven't seen him much lately.

We just wonder how big a welcome Charlie is going to get when he comes back from Maryland. At least Jerry is "making hay while the sun shines". Nice to have the new men around, isn't it Jerry.

Just ask Miriam Harper who her boy friend is. Bet she can't name them—after all she only has ten fingers.

We see a cute little freshman out more. We wonder if Lorraine M. is going to forget her Merchant Marine.

Lots of the girls say they think they will take some French. Isn't it fine what a little bit of handsome inspiration can do?

Did you see young June Bass in the parlor Sunday night? Who is the man, June.

Penny S. seems to be getting along alright even though she is busy working on the Tecoan. How about that Blaney?

We haven't seen Faye J.'s Joe around in Months. Is she off with the old and on with the new?

We just guess things will be buzzing 'round Jarvis Hall soon. Mary B. Master is expecting Paul from Boston.

Rudolph seems to still be around and Burton says that is "mighty fine".

Grace Wilkins says she hates to see so many discharge buttons around. But then she was doing alright Sunday—a sailor at lunch and a marine that night.

We noticed Marjorie G.'s Bob here last week-end. Looks good to us. We have missed him.

We wish that Ann T. would make up her mind as to whether or not she is in love, if so with whom and why?

What about those people that take long Sunday morning walks and come back with flowers. Hey Emma Lee, Miriam, Dick and Killebrew!

Did you see the coed, Bob Miller, on the side of Austin Building Tuesday just swamped with girls? Well, we did.

D. J.'s main interest is still with Carl at King's Port.

Speaking of King's Port, have you seen J. B. Smith around campus? We wonder how Helen W. is doing with him. We have heard her chatter about him so much.

Mary George says that John from her home is her boy friend, but def!

Page, aren't you complicating things? What will Jimmie say when Bill comes home? Where did Leta Olive go last week-end, and why?

Sally Margaret, who were you dating Sunday night?

What has happened to Gene and Marjorie? It looks as if Joyce Y. is taking over. We still see Beth S. and Jessie together. Looks good to us.

We think it won't be long before wedding bells will be ringing for Jo Gibson. She graduates in March so just wait and see.

It seems that that Bedworth-Brandenburg flame is still burning. We wonder how bright that flame is.

Jewel Porter's man looked mighty good to us last week-end. Hope we see more of him—Jewel does too.

Now that Dave has graduated, we guess maybe Mot's jitterbugging will get a bit

Student Spotlight

by Freda Caudell

Yes its Bobbie Parker the little gal that's always going somewhere with a red coat setting off that long blond hair.

Bobbie is from mAhoskie, North Carolina and a senior here at ECTC. She is also engaged in that frightful job of practice teaching. When asked her ambition in life Bobbie thought a minute and then replied, "to pass practice teaching."

To get on the lighter side of Bobbie's life, and whats more lighter or rather enlightening than a gals love life. Bobbie confesses that she hasn't found the one and only yet and that for a few years she wants to be on her own then meet that certain guy and settle down to the job of house keeping.

Bobbie is definitely a music lover from way back. She is crazy about dancing and very fond of both classic and popular music. Says she doesn't exactly have a favorite song but would never turn away from Dick Haynes singing "Let the Rest of the World go By." She also likes Vaughn Monroe singing just anything and on the classics she is fond of Chopan's Polenais.

Her favorite pastime first is eating, of course, anything mostly but especially ham and lemon pie, second she loves to buy shoes and third she's kinda fond of her roommate whom she labels as her favorite pest and rusty.

Mary Blain J. will probably be singing with much more joy soon. We hear that her Bob is coming home.

So it's love that draws Mary Alice Charlton away from E. C. T. C. Too bad you can't be her efor our next formal.

Margaret and James, can't we have even a little fuss between you two? Just a little something for excitement?

No wonder we had such a muddle in the seating arrangements in the dining hall. Allan Mann was the center of confusion trying to get over to sit at Nora Lee's table, no matter what.

That is about all for this time but before we go, a word for the new comers to the campus. We shall be watching and waiting for you to make that one slip that will put you in "Scummings". Just remember Ye Ole Keyhole Korrespondent doesn't miss a trick!

The Latest Dance

Latest dance songs—sometimes known as hot, swing, skat, stomp and various other titles—are always with us, and are certainly stimulating to those of us with jazz in our blood. Yeah, man! While the latest of latest dance songs intimate that modern terpichorean art is a combination of various established steps, we feel—we hope with due modesty—the little number we have worked up covers the ground a little more comprehensively than anything that has yet seen the light of radio dials. In fact, you may even label it "a skat song to end all skat songs."

There will be no extra charge. Any tune will go with this—in established practice. All ready? Swing it!

It's the latest thing. It's sure got swing. I mean the waltz with the Highland Fling!

Hi-di-hi-di-ho! See the Charleston go! So they're doin' what? Why, the Turkey Trot! You gotta wah-di-wah, you gotta woo-di-woo,

You gotta Black Botton and Suzy-Q! It's the Big Apple, the Bunny Hug, Gotta go to town wid some truckin', mug! Oh, biddledy-ooop, boop-a-doop-a-doop! Oh, throw that schottische for a loop! Gotta one-step fast, gotta two-step slow, While dat leader man make the trombone blow.

Now skip and skop! It's the Lindy Hop! Now skit and skat, now raz and daz! Now shake dat foot and bear dat jaz! Brother, snake-hips! Sister, shag! While mother does that Varsity Drag!

It's the new gavotte! It's mean! It's hot! Oh, eepety-boop-a-beep-a-deep, Oh, obpety-Xæ*æe*æe! Hey, our typewriter's on fire!

by Parke Cummings

MY DAZE

by Marjorie Mae McGur You probably haven't seen me, Marjorie Mae McGur, around on campus but I have been here for daze and daze. I am not quite a senior and yet I am not a freshman. I guess you would say I was of all classes and still I am really pretty much unclassified.

That's enough rattle about who and what I am. I have to tell you just what I do around these parts. But then, it is really the things that the rest of you do every day. Isn't it fun to be in college and be your own boss. . . . or rather your own boss until Ye Olde Hand declared two people by the name of Barbara should never room together.

Bobbie sorta lives by the works "put your best foot forward at all times." She has certainly done that on this campus in the good job she has done of being Cheer leader, Vice-President of Cotten Hall, President of Cotten Hall and Chairman of the Women's Judiciary.

Yes, Bobbie is a grand gal and cute too.

Book intervenes?

Have you noticed how they have gone and burned back that fine hedge down Fifth Street? My, but it is going to be a bit difficult getting off campus to go night riding now. But perhaps it will be even more fun. It has been said that nothing is worth while that we don't have to work a little to get.

Brother! How about all the new fellows on campus? I have my eyes on one already so watch my speed, girls. It is just so fine to see this place not looking so much like a girl's school anymore, that I have to take advantage of it. Did you, too, go around wearing black for a week after the marines left Greenville? Well then, this means as much to you as it does to me.

So. . . . you also made New Years resolutions to study more? Why the profs can't learn that it takes so much less ink to put down a one rather than a four, I don't know. To help them out a bit, best I get busy now and latch on to some study.

Will be seeing you 'round on the campus and in two weeks we'll talk some more.

Nibblings From A Cracker Barrel

by P. K. Thomajan

Seth Martin sez elbow grease comes in cans, not can'ts.

Deacon Mallory thinks that some of those barn dances are turning into wrassling matches.

Ezra Sloane sez that romance is just a lot of honeymoonshate.

These are terrible times, complains Mona Ellis, what with stick-up men and pin-up girls.

Hiram Hawkes is having trouble finding rubber collars, so he's having his old ones vulcanized.

Remember when the slit skirt was the height of something or other?

Hester Todd declares that mink coats come from city skunks.

Minnie Caswell has been seeing red ever since her gold wedding ring started turning green.

Ike Smith sez there's no more comfort left in the world since they stopped making Morris chairs.

Wally Thomas has organized a sym-funny orkester of musical saws. He uses a big stump for a stand.

Lottie Rice is divorcing her man. She complains that he works at a sawmill all day and then saws wood all night.

Mose Perkins is suffering from pink eye. His wife suspects it's due to straining too hard on those Police Gazette pictures.

The Teco Echo

Published Biweekly by the Students of East Carolina Teachers College

Entered as second-class matter December 3, 1925, at the U. S. Postoffice, Greenville, N. C., under the act of March 3, 1879.

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF MARY YOUNG BASS

ASSOCIATE EDITORS JACK JOHNSON, BETTY JERVIS

Make up Editor MARY GEORGE ISLEY Assignment Editor JANET ROSE

REPORTERS

Ella Cashwell, Mary Ellen Sawyer, Freda Caudell, Wanda Lamm, Hilda Riley, Suzie Edwards, Alma Lee Whitley, Mary Buckmaster, Edna Earl Moore, Sarah Franck, Mae Leitner.

Features DOROTHY NELL HENDERSON, SUZIE EDWARDS

Sports Editor GARLAND BAILEY Associate Sport Editors Kenneth Frazelle, Joe Tew, Ralph Gurganus, Jimmy Lockridge

Photography Editor JACK JOHNSON

Editorial Advisor MISS MAMIE JENKINS

Typists EDNA VANN HARRELL, FREDA CAUDELL, JANE ANDREWS

BUSINESS STAFF

JUNE BEST BRANDENBURG Business Mgr.

ASSOCIATE BUSINESS MANAGERS

June Bass, Trudy Loughlin, Doris Stafford, Jean Ipock, Mary Wooten, Miriam Harper.

Faculty Advisor DR. BEECHER FLANAGAN

Member: North Carolina Collegiate Press Association, Associated Collegiate Press.

Represented for national advertising by—National Advertising Service, Inc., 420 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y., Chicago, Boston, Los Angeles, San Francisco.

ECTC Buccaneers Seek Bo-Hunk Trophy January 24th

Atlantic Christian Meet Pirates To Senew Rivalry

In the college gym, Thursday, January 24, the East Carolina Pirates will take on the Cape Fear men from A. C. C. This game should be of particular interest to all as there has existed for many years a strong feeling of rivalry between the locals and A. C. C. So strong in fact that the Bo-Hunk trophy, resembling an oaken bucket was inaugurated in April, 1939 to be awarded to the school who last won an athletic contest between the bitter rivals. Since that time the trophy has changed hands several times.

JIMMY

Last year the home team won over the Bulldogs and consequently asked for the trophy. However A. C. C. claimed the Pirates were using ineligible players and refused to return it. A written request was forwarded in regard to this and officials promised to send the trophy but it never arrived. This time, it is thought that a special request will be made for the trophy to be sent to the forthcoming game. Long overdue at East Carolina, there is growing in everyone a very strong desire to send the A. C. C. team sadly home minus the Bo-Hunk Trophy.

Starting time for what may prove to be the basketball game of the season is 8:00 P. M.

Jimmy Gianakas captain of E. C. T. C.'s '41 football team which went through the season with an unbeaten, untied record re-enrolled in school for the Winter quarter. Jimmy has taken over the coaching duties of the Jr. Varsity basketball squad and while under his leadership, they will play a schedule of their own composed of high school teams of the county. Back from England and his job as B-24 pilot, Gianakas is well remembered as one of the best little football players ever to don a purple and gold uniform. His plans are not known yet, but we hope to have him back next fall as we re-enter inter-collegiate football.

Former Boxing Ace Instructs Boxing Classes

Have you ever seen a boxing match? Those who haven't and those who enjoy a knock down, drag out affair will be treated in the near future and their names in Joe Williams will present the boxing class, a non-credit course where you can get your ears smashed or your nose fattened quicker than you can say Jack Robinson. Anyone who thinks if they do not get bashed around enough by ordinary living conditions, they will gladly sign you up.

EVERETT HUDSON

We hope to have at least one bout lined up for our next home basketball game. Do not expect the best since the boys are not in excellent shape as yet and tend to be a little weak around the head basket. Anyone who would like to challenge Killer Peter Rabbit Wozniak is urged to make a contact with this editor immediately. Those team leaders who are expected to round out shape before the quarter break include Joe Williams—170 lbs., John A. Brown (must be at least 185 lbs.), Fountain "Rocker" Taylor—185 lbs., Jerome (Killer) Worsley 100 lbs., James Bailey 119 lbs., Dick Hutchins 145 lbs., Garlan Bailey, Nobles Killebrew and Leo Burks. Athletics is definitely on an upward trend on the campus and comes a new year—who knows what might happen.

E.C.T.C. Wins In Last Five Minutes

The E. C. T. C. Pirates with a four game winning streak has made a very impressive record in their first five games. In the five games, they have totaled 235 points against their opponents 149, or the Buccaneer have an average of 47 points per game against a 29.8 point average.

From here on out, the games will tend to become much stiffer as we start meeting the teams of the Piedmont section of North Carolina. Following is a schedule of our remaining games.

Jan. 11 Greensboro ORD	there
12 Thomasville Lions	here
13 Kinston Marines	here
19 Edenton NAS	here
22 Greensboro ORD	here
25 Elon	here
28 Lenoir Rhyne	here
31 Elon	there
Feb. 1 Guilford	there
2 High Point	there
9 13th Airbourne	here
12 Camp Lejeune	here
15 Guilford	here
19 ACC	there
20 High Point	here
22 William & Mary	here
26 Thomasville Lions	here

Intramural Ball For Girls Began January 2nd

With scarcely a pause to let the Christmas spirit get out of our bones, girls basketball swung into action this week. A practice was called on January 2, and there was a total of 45 girls turning out to help their Dormitory. Cotten had the most girls there, leading with 29, while Wilson came out with 4. Jarvis had 6, and Fleming, 14. Even the day students have taken an interest in this wonderful sport. There were 2 there to do their part in showing what good teams the girls can really have.

There were few spectators on the sidelines, but I know what few there were really enjoyed watching the girls "get on the beam". The ball went from one end of the court to the other through many hands, but the guards kept the opposing team from making many goals. The teamwork of the forwards showed that we will surely have a streamlined team from every dormitory. With a little more practice, it will be hard to determine which team will be the winners of the future games. At practice each team carried the others for a rough boogie ride. In the future you can bet on some "tuff" games, because each dormitory has a good team that is hard to beat.

Many more girls are signing up for the teams so watch the bulletin board for the dates of the games, which will be held between each dormitory. Come on out and watch the girls do their stuff and we'll assure you that you will see some hot games.

Pirates Have Impressive Wins

It seems as if the battling Buccaneers of E. C. T. have turned out to win every home game of basketball this season. On the fourth they entangled with the Jamesville Allstars in one of their toughest games so far. Until the last five minutes of the battle between the two determined teams, it seemed as if the Pirates had played a losing game. But things had just begun to click among the carefully trained and picked Buccaneer team. Even the "goal robber" of the Allstars couldn't stop the skillful pass-and-hack shots of the Parker twins and the excellent work of the Moyer cousins; Charlie Bill and Blainey. Charlie Bill did his share in matching his will against the Allstars and in "shaking the old net". Blainey kept up his usual work in defensive measures and crisp shots. Doug Jones could not have been any better in his work of guarding Martin of the Allstars and his quick thinking and shooting.

E. C. T. C.—46 Allstars—37
Parker, Jessie .17 Martin, E. .10
Moye, C. B. .9 Martin, T. .7
Parker, James .6 Corey .13
Jones, Doug .10 Brown .6
Moye, Blainey .4 Holliday .1
Substitutions: Lupton and Charlton for E. C. T. C.; Ange for the Allstars.

BOB MILLER

Bob Miller, a mountain boy of western North Carolina rolled on to the campus last week, discharge in hand and raring for another football season. He is another member of the '41 champion team and has announced his intentions of transferring to some central school in the future.

Tom Cox Leads E.C.T.C. Buccaneers

Tom Cox who played for the Pirates in Pre-War days, and air force ex., led the Buccaneers as they swamped Louisburg College by a 55 to 20 score Saturday night. The starting line up gave the Reserves a quick lead and from there on out the game was all E. C. T. C.'s.

The Louisburg lads could not cope with the fast breaking Pirates and they were repeatedly outguessed. The smooth handling of Otis Powell set up many of the E. C. T. C. points. Cox had his eye and hit the loop from a distance time and time again for a total of 12 points for the evening. The rest of the points were pretty evenly divided up between the rest of the players.

E. C. T. C. Louisburg
Parker, Jessie 4 F Johnson 4
Moye, C. B. 8 F Evans 0
Parker, James 9 C Petty 5
Moye, Blainey 2 G Lehem 6
Jones, Doug 2 G Etheridge 0
Half time score: E. C. T. C. 25 and Louisburg 8.

Substitutions for E. C. T. C. were Charlton, 2; Mann; Lupton, 4; Powell, 1; Cox, 12; Ausley, 4; Hudson, 7; and Musselwhite, Louisburg; Davenport, 2; Royland, 2; Johnson and Reeves, 1.

The Women's Athletic Association at the college began this week a series of basketball contests which will close at the end of the month with a tournament between teams. Rachel Lee of Newton Grove and Nell Stallings of the Health and Physical Education Department are in charge of the event.

VISIT THE
DIXIE LUNCH
"Where The Gang Eats"

Four Fast Games Scheduled For Next Two Weeks

by Joe Tew

Four games, with a promise of action and fast play are scheduled to be played this week and next.

Friday, January 11, the varsity travels to ORD at Greensboro where they will meet a very strong service team. Thus far this year, ORD (Overseas Replacement Depot) with a large number of victories behind it, has lost only three games having been beaten by Camp Lejeune, Flying Safety and Washington. This game will be played in the depot gymnasium.

The Pirates will spend Friday night in Greensboro and go to Thomasville, Saturday, January 12, where they are to play the Thomasville Lions Club in the high school gymnasium. Composed of ex-high school and college players, the Lions Club Team has shown a lack of teamwork in previous games but nevertheless has a formidable group of net men.

Two home games will be played next week. Visiting first will be the service team from Kinston Marine Base who, in a previous engagement with the varsity, won by a two-point margin after the game went into five minute overtime. The date and time of this game will be announced later. Saturday evening, January 19, the Edenton Naval Air Station will visit here.

Starting time for all games is 8:00 P. M.

Veterans Enter Basketball Team

Back from the Christmas holidays and a pleasant vacation came the E. C. T. C. Pirates and when the rumble of registration settled, 22 basketball prospects were out on the floor. I think probably this is a record number and far above the expectation of the coach. Two boys who played E. C. T. C. ball before were dressed, ready to give the first stringers a run for their place on the team. Tom Cox, six footer was with the E. C. T. C. squad from '39 to '41 and Otis Powell saw service in '37. Along with these old timers came James Hudson, Bracken, Jimmy Lockridge, H. Musselwhite, W. Ausley and Charlie B. Moye. E. C. T. C. has hopes of putting out one of the best teams of its history and at present they are riding on a four game winning streak. They have lost only one game. That being by two points to the Kinston Marines.

DRESS and SPORT
SHOES
—at—
THE BOOTERY
—for—
Campus "Lads and Lassies"

Jim Johnson Former Star Is New E. C. T. C. Coach

(as was printed in Raleigh News and Observer)

Jim Johnson

James A. (Jim) Johnson, Jr. of Raleigh will become head coach of all varsity sports at East Carolina Teachers College next September, it was announced today by Howard J. McGinnis acting president. He is 33 years old.

Johnson's job will include duties in the physical education department at the college. When intercollegiate football is resumed he will take over as head coach. He will also handle the basketball teams and any other inter-collegiate sports which the school resumes.

Now on terminal leave from the Navy in which he held the rank of Lt. (jg) Johnson is taking graduate work at Carolina in physical education, working on his masters degree.

John graduated from Cary High School and received his degree from E. C. T. C. in 1938. In 1939 he coached all sports at Clayton High School, in 1940 handled all sports at Hertford High and in 1941-43 served as assistant coach at Woodrow Wilson High in Portsmouth, Va. While in Portsmouth, Johnson played professional football with the Portsmouth Cubs, performing at tackle for the Dixie League club.

He entered the Navy in June 1943 under the V-5 program and served on the athletic staff at Iowa Pre-Flight for a year and a half. While there he was one of the eight officers performing with the Seahawks.

The new member of the department of physical education saw foreign duty as athletic officer at Tarawa and Saipan in the Pacific. He returned to the States December 2.

His parents reside at 515 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh. He is married to the former Alice Robertson of Hertford. The Johnsons have one child, Ruth, four years old.

Johnson is well remembered in Raleigh for appearances in the Golden Gloves boxing tournaments in previous years.

Pirates Swamped Campbell Camels Tuesday Night

Honors were evenly divided between the sixteen players who performed to defeat the Campbell Camels by a 47 to 29 score in Buies Creek.

The Camels jumped into an early lead but the Pirates over came this lead shortly and were never threatened thereafter. The E. C. T. C. boys seemed to be a little off par through out the game which is blamed on the lory ride to Buies Creek and the short rest period that they enjoyed before taking the floor for the game.

Vet Charlie Bill Moye nosed out James Parker for top scoring honors and slipped 10 points through the basket. Parker, James tallied nine points.

E. C. T. C. 47 Campbell 23
Parker, Jessie 6 F Meeks 3
Moye, C. B. 10 F Lamm 1
Parker, James 9 C Hall 0
Moye, Blainey 6 G King 5
Jones 6 G Leland 4
Half time score: E. C. T. C. 21, Campbell 11.

Substitutions: E. C. T. C., Hudson 2, James, Musselwhite, Bracken, Charlton, Lupton 4, Cox 4, Ausley, Powell 3, Mann, Lockridge.
Campbell: Price, Ricks 6, Jones 3, Creef 1, Cole, Young, Thomas.

Please the family and yourself by buying
—AT—

LAUTARES BROS. JEWELERS
Watches — Jewelry
Silver — Gifts
Watch Repairing
"The College Jeweler"

BLOOM'S

THE BEST LINE OF
Stationery, Toilet Articles and Notions
—AT—
ROSE'S 5 & 10

Call For That Much Needed Nourishment
While Studying
Garris Grocery
"If It's In Town, We Have It."

HENRY RENFREW
PORTRAITURE and COMMERCIAL
Photography
By Appointment Only
PHONE 3252
301 EASTERN STREET...GREENVILLE, N.C.

COME IN AND DINE
— AT —
Olde Towne Inn
Better Known To Students As
O. T. I.

RENFREW PRINTING COMPANY

For the most Exclusive
Campus Outfit—
Visit
C. HEBER FORBES

BELL'S DRUG STORE
STUDENTS!
Buy Your GIFTS
COSMETICS
MAGAZINES
and
NUT SUNDAES
HERE!

NORFOLK SHOE SHOP
LET US REPAIR YOUR SHOES
ALL WORK GUARANTEED

PENNEY'S
where the nation shops and saves

Breath taking styles so smart in —
• Dresses
• Coats
• Sweaters
• Skirts
• Costume Jewelry
Williams'
"The Ladies' Store"

ALUMNI NEWS

Promoted to Commander
William Alva VanNortwick of the United States Naval Reserve was promoted to commander on November 1st. At this time he is on terminal leave.

Alumna Joins Red Cross
Grace Dawson, former health instructor in the Kinston schools, has joined the Southeastern Area staff, American Red Cross, and has recently assumed her duties at Moody Field, Valdosta, Georgia, as hospital recreational worker.

On Terminal Leave
Lt. J. W. Foley, Jr., USNR, is spending terminal leave in Greenville.

Lt. Robert P. Hollar, Air Service Group, has recently returned from the Asiatic Theatre of Operations and is spending terminal leave with his parents in Greenville. He is the son of Mr. E. C. Hollar, member of the E. C. T. C. faculty.

Greenville Alumni Home for Christmas
Several Greenville alumni spent the Christmas holidays with their parents in Greenville. They are: Ensign James R. Worsley, Jr. of New York; Sidney P. Johnson, S-1c, New London, Conn.; Lt. Jack Edwards, Jr., Fort Francis E. Warren, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Lt. Katherine Jones Ashe, Wilmington, N. C.; Pfc. Leon Fleming, Jr., Camp Patrick Henry, Va.; Lt. Ben L. Harris, California; and Haywood Sellars, Sampson, N. Y.

Alumni Discharged
Many E. C. T. C. alumni have received their discharges from the armed forces and have taken their place in civilian life again.

Robert A. Eason has rejoined the faculty of Rocky Mount High School as instructor in physical education. "Bob" entered service in 1940 and rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He fought in Holland and Germany commanding the 882 Field Artillery Battalion, 70th Infantry Division.

Francis B. Ferebee, a former lieutenant in the Army Air Forces, has accepted a position as teacher and athletic coach at New Bern High School.

Others to receive discharges are: Thelma Elizabeth Haislip of Hassell; Sara Meadows Gorham of New Bern; C. T. Fleming, Joe Smith, Jr., Harvey Deal, William Howard Harris, Evelyn Hart, Charles E. Wooten; and Jimmy Wells all of Greenville; Vernon Kuetemeyer of Chicago Heights, Ill.

Veterans Return to School
Twenty-three students have returned to E. C. T. C. to continue their studies which were interrupted when they entered service. Three boys are at State College, three at the University of N. C. and one at Wake Forest.

Burlington Chapter Report
Mr. Baxter Ridenhour, president of the Burlington Chapter and member of the High School faculty there, was a visitor in the Alumni Office on January 4th before refereeing the basketball game between E. C. T. C. Pirates and the Jamesville All-Stars. He gave a first hand account of the Burlington Christmas party which was held in the home of Mrs. T. D. Foley (Lucille Stokes), on Everett Street, with Mesdames Foley, Jennings Bryan (Letha Mae Jarman), Jake Mayo (Sophia Jarman) and Miss Grace Cheek as hostesses.

Mrs. Foley's home was attractively decorated with a large Christmas tree and log candles. Soft music of Christmas carols was played during the entire evening.

A short business meeting was held during which a number of items were discussed. The president then turned the meeting over to the hostesses.

Bridge and rummy were enjoyed with Mrs. Anna Parker winner in bridge and Baxter Ridenhour in Rummy. Christmas gifts were found by each one as they completed a nursery rhyme which was started by one of the hostesses.

A delicious salad course with nuts and coffee was served.

Burlington Chapter's Yearbook
Mrs. Helen Mosely Pope, chairman, Misses Ida Walters and Bessie Countell, were responsible for the attractive yearbook of the Burlington Chapter. The college colors were used as the color scheme.

WEDDINGS
Edna Powell, Class of '44, and James Dewitt Barnhill were married in a private ceremony on November 22 in the Methodist Church in Greenville. The bride worked as an analyst in Oak Ridge, Tenn., and is now employed in the pathology laboratory at State College. The bridegroom served nine months in the European theatre and is now a student at the State College.

The wedding of Cora Swindell Weston of Swan Quarter and James Milton Taylor of Norfolk, Va., was solemnized on November 24th.

Viola Currin Alston of Louisburg became the bride of Henry Ruffin Mangum, Jr. of Henderson on November 28th.

The marriage of Sarah Helen Register of Wilmington, and Robert V. Kittle of Celina, Ohio was solemnized on December 2nd. Mrs. Kittle has been a member of the Sunset Park School faculty. Mr. Kittle recently received his discharge from U. S. Marine Corps Reserve in which he served as staff sergeant having been in the Pacific for 22 months. The couple will be at home in Celina, Ohio.

On December 2 in a candlelight service Delia Rose Taylor of Snow Hill, became the bride of Wilmer Ralph Price of Goldsboro. Mrs. Price worked as a supervisor in a department of the Veterans Administration in Washington, D. C. Mr. Price attended State College prior to his enlistment in the Merchant Marine in which he is serving as an engineer.

Majorie Lewis was united in marriage with Frederick N. Baxter on December 8th at the Marshadberg Baptist Church. Mrs. Baxter taught in the Beaufort Grade School. Mr. Baxter has just received his discharge from the Marines, where he was a sergeant attached to the Third Marine Corps. The couple will be at home in Watertown, N. Y., where Mr. Baxter will resume his work with the fire department.

Mary Dale Pitts of Creedmoor and Kermit Poe Sumrell of Ayden were united in marriage on December 8th. Mrs. Sumrell has been a teacher in the Angier school for the past two years. Mr. Sumrell has recently received his discharge from the Army. They will be at home in Kinston.

The wedding of Eloise Page and Robert Long took place on December 8th in Kenansville in a formal ceremony.

Mary Rebecca Watson became the bride of Captain John Williams Brown on December 14th. She has been teaching in Joneboro while he has been serving in the European war area.

Inez Stevens and Jack Pool Burnham were married on December 14th. They will be at home in Shiloh.

On December 14th in the Edenton Methodist Church, Margaret Elizabeth Spires and Captain Allie McLeod Stan-

Dr. Reynolds Reports Increase In Science Dept.

Dr. Charles W. Reynolds, acting chairman of the Science Department at the college, reports the largest enrollment of students of physics in many years at East Carolina Teachers College. General physics, a class for juniors, has approximately forty students, both men and women. Dr. Reynolds believes that this is the largest single class in physics ever to be enrolled at the college. The increase in number, Dr. Reynolds thinks, is largely due to the entrance to the college this term of a number of ex-service men interested in scientific and technical training.

ton were married. The bride attended E. C. T. C. and graduated from the school of medical technology at the Duke University School of Medicine. For the past year and a half she has been the medical technologist at the Plymouth Clinic. Captain Stanton has recently returned from overseas where he was on active duty in Germany with the Fifth Auxiliary Surgical Group. At present he is stationed at Ashford General Hospital, White Sulphur Springs, West Va.

Sylvia Greene of Roduco and H. Leslie Chadwick of Gloucester were united in marriage on December 15th. Both are teaching—she in Erwin and he in Morehead City.

On December 15th, in a candlelight ceremony in Myers Park Methodist Church in Charlotte, Jan Edixon Manning became the bride of Claude Armstrong. For the past two years the bride has held a position with the Federal Reserve Bank of Charlotte. Mr. Armstrong served as lieutenant in the Air Corps in the European theatre where he was a prisoner of war in Germany for eleven months. The couple will reside in Raleigh where Mr. Armstrong will complete his engineering course at State College.

Virgie Coward, member of the Mars Hill School Faculty, Colerain and Lellie T. Northcott were married in a formal ceremony on December 15th.

Dorothy Gupton, home demonstration agent of Granville County, became the bride of G. P. Wilkinson, Jr. on December 16th in a formal ceremony. They will be at home in Oxford.

On December 22 Mary Lois Mercer became the bride of Alton G. Rouse. The bride is a member of the Swansboro School Faculty. The bridegroom is now stationed at Camp Perry, Va., with the Navy as Chief carpenter's mate.

Mme. Buillon Speaks For WSS

"I had no intention of being sent to a German Concentration Camp!" So spoke Mademoiselle Francine Bouillon of Paris when interviewed upon arrival in the United States where she will speak to American students on student relief needs throughout the world in behalf of the World Student Service Fund.

"For several days I had been planning to make my escape. There were one hundred and eighty of us in three box cars. I was in the last car which was locked. There were only two small openings in the car that served as windows. One was covered with a wire grill. The train was speeding on when I managed to crawl through the open window and slide down a rod to the side of the car. I hid on for dear life. The train had stopped at many small stations along the road. At the next stop, I planned to jump and run as fast as I could. Unfortunately for me, the next stop was not at a small station but at Colmar. I had to think fast. I quickly hid underneath the car holding tight to the undercarriage. The German guards walked by on the station platform. They did not see me as it was getting dark. I crawled back up the track for a distance of two hundred meters, then I stood up and ran as fast as I could into the open fields. For two hours I walked and half-ran toward the Vosges Mountains. I was very tired. I curled up under a bush and tried to sleep. I could not on account of the rain. At day-break, I started out again hoping I could cross the Vosges and be in France the next day. I was soon exhausted. I pressed on hoping to find someone who might help me. I came to a large vineyard where I saw a peasant working among the vines. I spoke to him in French which was forbidden in Alsace. He immediately understood my predicament and gazed at me in wonder and amazement. Then he burst into a grin. I realized what a sorry spectacle I must have presented to him. I was dripping wet and my hair hung in strands over my face and shoulders. My skirt was in rags and my knees were bloody. I was dirty beyond description. I asked him the way to France and he advised against my continuing on the road I had taken. I would encounter too many Germans. He gave me money and told me where I could find friendly people who would give me food and permit me to rest. I spent a comfortable two hours with the peasants and continued on. I lost my way during the day and had no idea where I was. I heard women's voices nearby. I approached cautiously and peeped through the trees. I saw three nuns. I approached them and told them my story.

"I had been a member of the Maquis, the French underground movement. Many students had joined the Maquis. I had been a student at the University of Paris where I studied ancient languages. I joined the active resistance group and was made a liaison agent. My work took me to many parts of France. I used assumed names. We requisitioned food, autos and arms. After D-Day we enlisted men. One day, some boys from our Maquis Camp in the mountains saw three German soldiers on the highway in front of them. They opened fire, not knowing that a battalion of German troops were nearby. The Maquis were captured and beaten. One boy was forced to lead the Germans to our camp. We were taken by surprise. The Germans opened fire as soon as they came in view of our camp. I was captured with two boys, one of whom had been wounded. We were taken to German headquarters at Pontarlier where we were questioned.

"I was given a cell with two other French girls. We had little to eat. What food we did get was cabbage and beans and it was often so bad that we had to throw it out in spite of our hunger. We were not allowed outside of our cell at any time except to empty the "tinette". Our cell smelled foully because of the July heat and lack of modern sanitary facilities. The old German woman who guarded us knew only one word in French — "tinette". We soon began calling her "Madame Tinette". The window in our cell was high and small and we were not permitted to look out of it. We often took the risk though, and filled our lungs with fresh air and caught a glimpse of the sky. Every evening when Madame Tinette was gone, we communicated with other prisoners by means of knocking on a pipe that ran along the floor of each cell.

"At last the Gestapo sent for us. We were to be interrogated. I decided that if the questioning were held out doors, I would try to escape. I was escorted to a waiting automobile. There were five Gestapo in it. I sat in the rear seat next to the door. I waited for my opportunity to jump out. I knew the town very well because our Maquis had once had its headquarters in it. I waited until the automobile approached a certain section of the city where I could quickly hide if I once got away from the automobile. I jumped from the car. I fell down and hurt my wrist but was up and away before the Germans realized what had happened. My shoes were slippery and I could not run fast. I glanced back and saw one of the Gestapo running after me and trying to disengage his revolver from the holster. I was finally caught. A crowd of on-lookers gathered and for that reason I was not beaten then and here. I was taken to a cell in the Gestapo center where I was questioned. The documents of our Maquis group had been taken by the Germans when we were captured so I knew that they knew all about our activities. I answered all their questions with statements that I knew they would believe to be true. I did not give the true names and addresses of my colleagues. I was sent back to my cell where I remained for another week after which time I was moved to Belfort to join a large group awaiting shipment to a concentration camp in Germany. When we were ready to go I was put into a cattle car with my hands tied. It was very crowded in the car. We were given a loaf of bread for the journey. The Red Cross also gave us some food before we left. The train pulled out of the station enroute to Germany. I heard from the other prisoners that the allies were advancing very rapidly through France. It made me happy for I wanted to be free again. It was then that I began making plans to escape. I had no intention of being sent to a German Concentration Camp."

As Mademoiselle Bouillon says, "unless students and faculty members in countries untouched by the war come to the aid of their fellow students and assist them in the relief, rehabilitation and reconstruction of their university life, untold thousands will be denied the privilege of resuming their college careers."

New Spring Coats, Dresses
and
Materials Arriving Daily

Belk-Tyler Co.
Greenville, North Carolina

For that lovely photograph for that special person, visit—

BAKER'S STUDIO

QUALITY and QUANTITY
IN
CAROLINA DAIRY'S
DELICIOUS
MILK SHAKES

EAT and DRINK

where all

COLLEGE
STUDENTS

meet

KARES

Friendly Atmosphere

plus

Good
Food
Drinks

BISSETTE'S
DRUG STORE

Patronize Your College
Stores

Stationery Store

A COMPLETE LINE OF
SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Soda Shop

THE MEETING AND EATING PLACE
OF ALL COLLEGE STUDENTS

SCHOOL OXFORDS
HOSIERY

Walk with ease and in style.

Merit Shoe Store

Buy from the store that carries—

EVERYTHING

WHITE'S

The right kind of fruits and foods for those snacks—

HONEYCUTT GROCERY

A ALWAYS Milder
B BETTER TASTING
C COOLER SMOKING
All the Benefits of Smoking Pleasure

THE RIGHT COMBINATION OF THE WORLD'S BEST TOBACCOS
Properly Aged

Always Buy CHESTERFIELD