

PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.

Faces Caught as They Passed Before the Reflector.

Mr. W. E. Grimsley, of Snow Hill, is in town.

Mr. J. T. Worthington, of Grifton, is here to-day.

Mr. R. C. Flanagan returned to Washington City to-day.

Mr. J. S. C. Benjamin returned from Hassells yesterday.

Mrs. C. T. Munford returned home yesterday from Wilson.

Mrs. Charles Skinner returned home this morning for Salem.

Mr. T. H. W. McIntyre, Jr, returned last night from Pender.

Messrs James and Wiley Brown have exchanged residence.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Harris returned to Scotland Neck this morning.

Miss Anna Morrill, of Farmville, is visiting her brother, Mr. W. F. Morrill.

Miss Lizzie Hargrave, of Wilson is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. F. Moorill.

Mr. W. P. Hall has returned from Goldsboro where he had been for a week.

Prof W. F. Harding left this morning to resume his duties at Charlotte Military Institue.

Mr. J. R. Davenport, of Pactolus, was here to-day. He says Pactolus, had a good fall trade.

Misses Mary Mewborn and Jennie Patrick of Kinston came over this morning to attend consecration services.

Cadets J. M. Moore and Charlie O'Hagan have returned to Horner School, Oxford, after spending the holidays at home.

We are glad to see Mr. J. H. Cobb, of Miriam, Ga., here again. He is in looking after hands for the southern turpentine farms.

Mr. H. B. Bagwell, of Garners, has been spending a few days with his brother, Dr. W. H. Bagwell, and returned home to-day.

LITTLE BITS.

Cream of Local News Boiled Down for Busy Folks.

1895.

Happy New Year.

First day of the year.

Not a large crowd in town for New Years day.

Resolved—that we won't take snow on subscription.

The sportsmen have killed lots of game yesterday and to-day.

People who have to move such weather as this are to be pitied.

The snow began melting to-day under the warm rays of the sun.

How many of your New Year resolutions have you broken to-day?

Letters dated a year behind time will be the order of the next few days.

January will give us five Tuesdays, five Wednesdays and five Thursdays.

Granulated Sugar 5 cents a pound, and Seedless Raisins at Old Brick Store.

Mr. H. J. Herrick has retired from the editorial management of the Wilson Mirror.

The REFLECTOR wishes a Happy New Year to every patron, reader, friend and enemy.

If you don't forget you may now write it eighteen and ninty fou—no, we mean ninty-five.

C. I. Hood, & Co. of Lowell, Mass., manufacturers of the famous Hood's Sarsaparilla, sent us two pretty calendars for '95.

Brown & Hooker have purchased the stock of goods of F. Fleming, deceased, who was in business at the Parker X roads, two miles from town.

If any reader has any suggestion to offer for the advancement of Greenville the REFLECTOR columns are open to such and invite correspondence. Discussion of subjects relating to improvements would accomplish much good.

Telegraph Briefs.

The Florida orange crop is reported ruined by the freeze.

Two firemen were killed and four others injured at a fire in New York.

Forty one persons were burned to death while attending a christmas tree entertainment at Silver Lake, Oregon. The fire was caused by a man upsetting a lamp.

Ninety employes of the Census office at Washington were dismissed Monday. The work in their department had been completed.

The new Supreme Court for this State assembled in Raleigh to-day, and the oath of office was admidistered to the Judges. An adjournment was then taken to February 1st.

Mr. Walter Pender returned last night from a trip on his wheel to Tarboro, Rocky Mount and Nashville. He got snow bound and had to come in on the train.

BOSWELL, SPEIGHT & CO.