Arm Dislocated.

Saturday afternoon a little child of Mr. J. H. Kinion got one of his arms dislocated accidentally. A negro was riding the child in a small wagon when the little fellow fell out.

Meat Thieves.

A few nights ago thieves entered the smoke house of Mr. W. L. F. Cory, seven miles from town, and stole all the meat therein. Fortunately for Mr. Cory he had not killed hogs and put up his new meat when the thieves paid him a call.

New Addition.

We took a walk recently through College City, just in the rear of the Seminary, and were surprised at the number of houses and inhabitants. There are twelve houses and about fifty inhabitants. The houses rent for three dollars per month and nearly all occupied. It is quite a town over there.

To Leave Us.

We see it stated that Rev. J. N. H. Summerell, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church at Tarboro for several years, and who has served the church here since it was organized, has accepted a call to Anderson, S. C. This section loses a good man in parting with Mr. Summerell, and there are many in Greenville who will regret his going away.

Bold Thieves

A colored woman with several children have lately been doing some stealing from the merchants here. Saturday night they went to the store of Mr. H. C. Hooker and while the woman engaged the attention of the clerk in showing her some shoes the children stole a pair of pants. Then they went to the store of Mr. S. T. White and while the woman was looking at some goods the children stole a bolt of bleaching and some other goods Mr W. H. White was on the sidewalk in front of his store and saw the darkies when they came out of Mr. S. T. White's with the bolt of goods. He told his brother and they started after them. Seing they were followed the negroes ran and began throwing away the stolen goods in their flight. Most of the goods were recovered.

GREENVILLE, N. C., Jan. 21 1895

I wish to say to the farmers of Pitt and Greene and the many customers of the late firm of Boswell, Speight & Co, that since the misfortune of these three young men, I shall devote my time in behalf of the Fertilizer trade in this section, and trust you will see me or write for prices before buying, believing that I can make it to your interest. Very truly yours,

JESSE SPEIGHT,
For Speight & Forbes.

Examining Bonds.

The Board of County Comm'sioners met to day to re-examine the bonds of W. H. Harrington and J. A. Thigpen. The Board had not completed the work at the time the REFLECTOR went to press and it will probably take them to-morrow to get through.

A Good Company.

The Chick Medicine and Concert Company closed their two week's engagement here Saturday night and left for Washington Sunday. We have never met a more clever set of people and their performances throughout were chaste and highly enjoyed by all. If they ever come this way again they will be welcomed by the Greenville theatre goers. They paid over to the free school committee about $90, being one fourth of receipts, to procure seats for the new public school house. We cheerfully recommend the company to the Washington people, they will find them perfect ladies and gentlemen and do what they say they will do.
