

MUD CAKES.

Little Things Caught in the Snow Drift or Pulled out of the Mud.

Lent begins on the 27th, next Wednesday.

Mr. James Brown lost a good horse Tuesday.

Mr. Bradshaw has sold out his stock of groceries to Mr. Charles Cobb.

There is no best place to walk on the streets now, its mud everywhere.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

Too many people went to the fair for our personal columns to hold the names.

Cream Walnut Candy, Apples, Pears, and Oranges, cheaper than ever, at Morris Meyer's.

FOR RENT.—Two Seine Fisheries near Pactolus. Apply to J. J. CHERRY, SR.

The Coast Line will sell round trip tickets from Greenville to the Mardi Gras at New Orleans for $26.50.

The weather faired off last night after the rain and this morning was sharp and cold. We do not believe it will stay fair long.

In places protected from the sun there is still some snow. We will bet a last season's straw hat that some of it stays on the ground until more comes.

A lady with a little girl 5 years old would like to get a home in a family where there are no small children. Her address can be learned at the REFLECTOR office.

The Washington Messenger reports the death of Mrs. A. G.
Conelly, (nee Miss Bessie Hatton.)
She was well known in Greenville and many here learn with regret of her death.

"Imagine, or the Witch's Secret," a beautiful drama in 4 acts, will be presented by a company of home talent in the Opera House on Thursday evening, 21st.
Give them a good house.

THAWED OUT.

People on the Go, Weather or no Weather.

Mr. Z. F. Highsmith went to Oakley to-day to see his father.

Miss Loraine Horne has gone to Black Creek to visit relatives.

Miss Fannie Higgs returned Tuesday night from a visit to Scotland Neck.

Mr. F. C. Harding went down to Kinston last night. From there he goes to the fair.

Jim Kramer has packed up his stock of dry goods and moved back to Baltimore.

A postal card from Mr. B. F.
Sagg, written at Newbern, tells us the fair is good.

Rev. R. D. Carroll, of Winter ville, will preach in the Methodist church to night. Public cordially invited.

Mr. Allen Warren took three boxes of cut flowers from Riverside Nursery, this morning, to exhibit at the fair.

Mr. J. S. Congleton was able to come down town this morning after a few days confinement at home with sickness.

Tobacco Cloth at Lang's

To the Fair.

The excursion train from Scotland Neck this morning had about twenty passengers on when it reached Greenville. Upwards of seventy-five more were added to the number here and they all left looking forward to a good day. Those who decided during the rain last night not to go now wish they had gone.

At Rest.

The remains of Mrs. D. E.
Doughty, whose death was announced yesterday, were interred at 10 o'clock in the Baptist cemetery, a large number of people attending the funeral. Services were conducted at the grave by Rev. G. F. Smith. The pall bearer were Messrs. J. S. Smith, W.
H. Ragsdale, S. M. Schultz, L.
W. Lawrence, O. Cuthrell and
C. D. Rountree.

East Lynne To-night

A little better audience greeted the Hill Theatre Co., at the Opera House last night, but it was not as large as the excellence of the company merits. The acting of the different performers is splendid. To-night they will present East Lynne and should have a full house. Instead of a portion of the proceeds going to the public school building fund, as the RE-FLECTOR has stated, 25 per cent of the receipts of the week will be divided between that fund and the King's Daughters. So by patronizing them you help two good local causes as well as witness a good play every night.
