

MUD CAKES.

Little Things Caught in the Snow
Drift or Pulled out of the Mud.

Washington's birthday.

The streets have dried off very fast.

Shad frogs have commenced their song. Now for the shad.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

An occasional bale of cotton finds its way to town.

To-day is a legal holiday, but no observance of it here has been noted.

People are getting to work and pushing things since the weather cleared up.

We are taking the weather as it comes now, no bulletins received in two or three days.

Potatoe talk is now topmost among the planters. A large crop is being arranged for.

Three foreigners with two big bears struck town to-day. They soon had a crowd around them.

Cream Walnut Candy, Apples, Pears, and Oranges, cheaper than ever, at Morris Meyer's.

FOR RENT.—Two Seine Fisheries near Pactolus. Apply to J. J. CHERRY, SR.

Go to Lang's and secure your seats for the "Woven Web" Monday night. It is going to be good.

Maybe the bad weather to strike between the 20th and 24th is going to miss us. Verily, we hope so.

"The Woven Web" is the next attraction by home talent. It will be presented in the Opera House Monday night.

More new type and another good lot of stationery just in puts the REFLECTOR office in better shape than ever for first-class job printing.

The Washington birthday number of the Youth's Companion is a superb publication. We acknowledge receipt of a copy from the publisher, Boston.

We learn that a company has been formed and arrangements perfected to build another tobacco warehouse here. It will be in readiness for the next season.

Don't forget that the Hill Theatre Co. will present "The Daughter of Dixie" to-night. This is a thrilling play and presents a vivid picture of the South before the War.

A change in his advertisement to-day tells that Wiley Brown is receiving new spring goods. He says that "selling at cost" and the "tariff off" don't cut any figure along with what he can offer. Go see for yourself.

To get something for nothing is contrary to all the laws that govern mankind. But this is what you do, borrowing friend, when you habitually read your neighbor's REFLECTOR for which he has paid. Subscribe for it yourself.

Tobacco Cloth at Lang's

THAWED OUT.

People on the Go, Weather or no Weather.

Col. E. A. Keith, of Ayden, has been in town to-day.

Mr. W. I. Boswell left this morning for Petersburg.

Mrs. J. B. Cherry returned this morning from a visit to Kingston and Newbern.

Dr. C. J. O'Hagan, Messrs. N. H. Whitfield and W. W. Perkins came home this morning from the fair.

Mr. W. B. Wilson left this morning for Baltimore taking his little son Walter to have the latter's eyes treated.

Mr. W. S. Rawls left this morning for Ivor, Va. He was summoned by the death of his mother which occurred Thursday.

Mr. Z. F. Highsmith was summoned home this morning by the death of his father, Mr. J. H. Highsmith, which occurred Thursday night near Oakley. Mr. Highsmith was a good citizen.

HORSES! AT AUCTION.

At our stables in Greenville on Saturday, March 2nd, 1895.

—we will sell—

A LOT OF GOOD HORSES & MULES

at Auction. They will be sold to the highest bidder without regard to price. No stock put up will be taken down or bought in for us, but will be knocked off to the highest bidder. . . .

Sale will positively take place on that date regardless of the weather

TUCKER & EDWARDS.

The Place to Sell your

TOBACCO!

THE EASTERN

TOBACCO

WAREHOUSE,

O. L. JOYNER, Prop.,

Greenville, N. C.