

DAILY REFLECTOR.

Vol. 1.

Greenville, N. C., March 15, 1895.

No. 82.

Local Trains and Boat Schedule.

Passenger and mail train going north, arrives 8:22 A. M. Going South, arrives 6:37 P. M.

North Bound Freight, arrives 6:45 A. M., leaves 10:15 A. M.

South Bound Freight, arrives 1:51 P. M., leaves 2:11 P. M.

Steamer Myers arrives from Washington Monday, Wednesday and Friday leaves for Washington Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Weather Bulletin.

Saturday: showers.

OTHER LOCALS.

Eggs still lower, they are now only 9 cents in Norfolk.

The straw on the field near the Greenville Lumber Co's mill was burned off Thursday afternoon and made quite a blaze.

A coaling station will be established at Wilmington, for the purpose of shipping coal to the West Indies and the South American countries.

The "man who knows it all" is not confined to any locality. The world is his and the fulness thereof, and his lifelong regret is that he didn't have a chance to make it himself.

Opinion at Washington.

The English Swells Burlesque Co. was here on Friday and Saturday nights. From what we learn it is not a fit show for decent people to attend.—Washington Progress.

The Mayor and the owner of the Opera House, at the solicitation of the ministers and many others, declined to allow the Swell Burlesque company to play here again. None but men attended the performance last week.—Washington Gazette.

NEWS OFF THE WIRE.

Served by our "Leased" Underground Cable—(Limited).

Three people lost their lives in a burning hotel at Maekeysville, W. Va.

In Kansas City, Mo., fire destroyed $3000,000 worth of property in one hour.

Fifty Cuban rebels were killed during an attack made upon a band of 400 of them by Spanish soldiers.

W. H. Taylor, the defaulting Treasurer of South Dakota, has been arrested in Mexico by a Pinkerton detective.

A man named J. M. Newcombe of Petersburg, left his home last September and failing to return was supposed to have been drowned by falling off a steamer between Norfolk and Baltimore. The family believing him dead went in mourning for him. The man has turned up in North Carolina alive and well, having been for some time at the home of a brother in Greensboro.

Your Home Paper.

Any man can take a newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. It costs no more than a postage stamp, it instructs you and your wife and teaches your children. It comes through rain or shine, calm or storm, bringing you the best news of the neighborhood. No matter what happens it enters your door as a welcome friend, full of sunshine, cheer and interest. It shortens the long summer days and enlivens the long winter nights. It is your adviser, your gossip and friend. No man is just to his wife and children who does not give them the home paper to read.—Ex.

DID YOU KNOW?

Well. Look at these Names and Then You Will Know.

Mr. W. B. Wilson went to Bethel to-day.

Mr. Edward Greene returned last night from Virginia.

Rev. D. B. Clayton left on last night's train for Kinston.

Mrs. J. L. Wooten is visiting her mother at Hockersville.

Mr. C. A. Whitehead returned to Scotland Neck this morning.

Capt. Swift Galloway, who was here at Court, returned to Snow Hill yesterday.

Rev. C. J. Woodson, of Gatesville, is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Senator Jarvis and Mrs. Monteiro.

Mr. E. G. Cox took the train here this morning for Washington City to receive medical treatment in a hospital.

Rev. W. J. Rollins conducted services in the Baptist church last night and delivered an excellent sermon. He left to-day for Halifax.

Mr. Sam McIlveen, literary tourist for P. F. Collins, is in town with Collins works in 30 volumes and other standard works. What he lacks in being able to talk books is not worth knowing.

Married.

Mr. R. J. W. Carson was married to Miss Lissie M. James, at the residence of the bride's father Mr. Eason James, Sr., on Wednesday, evening March 13th, 1895, D. C. Moore Esq. officiating. After the marriage the bridal party and invited guests went to the home of the groom in Bethel, on James street, where all partook of an elegant and bounteous supper. May happiness attend them through life. M.