

SCALES.

Not off of Shad, But Whales Caught in the Reflector Net.

Mr. H. F. Harris has returned home.

Look at the pretty Shoes and Slippers at Lang's.

A few more days like this and we will be thinking of summer.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

Capt. Hawks is back at his post in charge of the passenger train.

Lumber is being placed on the ground for the new tobacco warehouse.

Regular Thursday night services in the Baptist church to-night.

For Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls and Shingles call on Henry Sheppard. Prices low down.

Stirring up dirt and putting in seed go bravely on now. Good weather for it.

The Roanoke Union meets at Bethel to-morrow and continues through Sunday.

The ladies should not fail to see the new goods at Lang's.

The present outlook is that this will be a very busy year with carpenters around Greenville.

The young ladies are making extensive preparation for the "bonnet party" to-morrow night.

Mrs. Fannie Hobgood, daughter of Lorenza McLawhorn, of Contentnea township, died Wednesday.

Several very fine horses have recently been purchased by parties here. There seems to be a growing interest in good stock.

One lady in town is saving a complete file of the DAILY REFLECTOR and says she is going to keep them as long as she lives.

Mr. J. R. Moye returned Wednesday night from his northern purchasing tour for J. B. Cherry & Co. You may count on good-selected by "Jess" being o. k. all around.

So Natural Looking.

A lady friend in Norfolk sent us a box of artificial flowers of her own make. They are made of colored paper and such perfect imitation of the natural flower that one's first impulse upon looking at them is to test their fragrance.

Tried to Run Away.

A pair of horses hitched to a wagon loaded with barrels of water created a little excitement, yesterday afternoon, by trying to run away near Five Points. They nearly upset the wagon in turning around and sprinkled water about mightily, but the driver very skilfully pulled them in.

Still Trying to Burn.

Another effort has been made to burn Kinston, as will be seen from our special published elsewhere. The trouble our neighbor town is having with firebugs has reached such a stage that there would be general rejoicing over the capture and speedy punishment of the perpetrators of such fiendish deeds. The people there feel great alarm at the danger surrounding them.

Ayden Items.

AYDEN, N. U., Mar. 28, 1895.

The Free Will Baptist made its appearance here this morning. It was a day late owing to the sickness of one of the printers.

The people around Ayden are fixing their gardens in a hurry. One man caught a mole which he said had done at least $10 damage to his garden and he expressed much satisfaction over killing it.

The machinery for the tobacco flue factory arrived to day.

The new millinery store of Hart & Harrington is very handsome, also the new residence of R. v. J. M. Barfield.

We regret to hear of the death of Mrs. Fannie Hobgood and Mrs. Richard Anderson, both of Contentnea township.

Mr. J. J. Harrington is erecting a dwelling here.
