Proposed Reunion.

We have seen a letter received by Mr. C. D. Rountree from Mr. Cicero B. Barker, of Salisbury, suggesting a reunion of the surviving comrades of the 8th N. C. Regiment in Raleigh on May 20th. One company of this regiment was from Pitt county and several of the gallant old veterans are now living. Let them have the reunion by all means. Mr. Rountree will be glad to talk with any of them about it.

Scotland Neck is establishing a chewing gum factory.

NEARER HOME.

What is Happening Over the State.

Newbern Journal: In digging to make the basement of the public building two old brick vaults were found each of which contained a few human bones that had almost crumbled away from age. Of course no one knows anything about them.

The new dwelling going up on Cotauche street for Mr. G. E. Harris shows that it will be very neat and well arranged. It is being built by Mr. W. J. Cowell.

Charlotte Observer: Ex Judge John Gray Bynum, who appeared as counsel in a suit at Morganton Court Monday, was fined $50 by the court for contempt.
