They have been enjoying boss times out in the Nebraska Legislature, too. Senator Stewart had a fight with the Sergeant at arms, and when the matter was called up for correction the belligerent Senator took a vote of censure rather than apologize.

The west had some of all kinds of weather the past week. In some of the States out there the temperature got elevated away up in the eighties then all of a sudden down it went. A blizzard struck Colorado Saturday and a heavy snow storm set in. There was thunder and lightning and snow all at one time.

L. W. Smith, of Raleigh, a Republican, tells some caucus secrets and hotly scores Mr. Ewart. He gives several quotations from the would-be judge—for instance: "Let us dictate the appointment to the Governor." It seems, however that the Governor knew his prerogatives and did not fail to exercise his constitutional rights.

Mr. Joseph Daniels writes an interesting letter from Washington giving a brief account of the case of Pritchard vs. Settle, in reference to the vote of North Carolina in the next Republican convention to nominate a candidate for President. Pritchard has promised this vote for McKinley. Settle has assured Tom Reed that he shall have it. Thus the battle has begun and promises to be an interesting one as both men are good fighters with good backers.

It is amusing to hear the various excuses that are given by the Fusionists for voting to adjourn in honor of Fred Douglas. The latest is one that would show the intelligence of the body. It is this "I did not know that Fred Douglas was a negro, or I never would have voted to adjourn in his honor." This is either a willful falsehood or it marks an ignoramus for Crews stated that the most distinguished one of their race was dead, &c. when he offered the resolution. If any fellow could see Crews and not know a man who was of his race is not a negro then he is hardly fit for a legislator. For if there was ever one man that is so black that he shines it is Bill Crews, the misrepresentative of Granville county in the last Legislature.

TO MAKE WAR ON TIGHTS.

A bill has been introduced in the New York Legislature prohibiting any women from "appearing in tights or any indecent costume at any place where male persons assembled." An offence is deemed a misdemeanor and is to be punished by imprisonment of not less than 30 days or more than one year.

Any person who procures any woman to so appear shall upon just conviction be punished by imprisonment of not less than three months, nor more than one year, and upon each subsequent conviction shall be sentenced to State's prison for a term of not less than two years nor more than five years, or by a fine or not less than $100, nor more than $1,000.

The posting of theatrical or other bills with indecent pictures is to be prohibited, as is also the publication of so called high-art pictures in any magazines, newspapers or other publication.

It is not surprising to learn that the abandonment of the State Fair is under consideration. For a number of years it rested upon the check book of Hon. Thos. M. Holt, who has spent more money, in one way and another, without any return, for the advancement of North Carolina interests, than any except a very few people have any idea of. Last year it cost Col. Julian S. Carr large money. Citizens of large wealth undoubtedly owe more to the State than those in humble circumstances, but there is no reason in asking the wealthiest citizen to go on indefinitely in his expenditures for purely public purposes.—Charlotte Observer.
