YOUR -:- ATTENTION

IS CALLED TO THE ELEGANT —LINE OF—

DRESS GOODS, SILKS, LACES,

Ribbons, Gloves, Mitts, &c., carried by

J. B. CHERRY & CO.,

—this season. Our Stock of—

S.H.O.E.S,

—AND—

Ladies & Childrens

·SLIPPERS!·

is the largest and cheapest ever offered in this town, come and see for yourself and be convinced.

BABY CARRIAGES, FURNITURE,

Mattinys, Window Shades and Lace Curtains.

Goods sold on their merits and prices made accordingly.

J. B. CHERRY & Co.

The Place to Sell your

TOBACCO!

THE EASTERN

TOBACCO

WAREHOUSE,

O. L. JOYNER, Prop.,

Greenville, N. C.

A GOOD STRING.

And Every Item Worth Reading.

Regular services in the Baptist church to-night.

Buy Cotton Seed Meal at the Old Brick Store.

Hyacinths are now at the zenith of their beauty.

Miss May Harris, of Falkland, is visiting friends here.

Dr. and Mrs. B. T. Cox, of Redalia, spent to day in town.

There is room for more advertisements in the REFLECTOR.

Some purple magnolias are in bloom in Col. Harry Skinner's yard.

There was frost this morning but we hope not enough to do any damage.

Pitt County Rifles meet for drill to-morrow afternoon. Turn out in full, boys.

The largest and best assortment of Ladies novelties ever brought to Greenville at Langs.

You may listen out for some marriage dates after Lent, if all reports are true.

Fire company is being talked. Whoop it up and make S. T. Hooker captain.

Our spring and summer stock is now complete in all branches. Call and examine it. LANG'S.

The Christian & Rawls printing office is being moved to Mr. W. S. Rawls' jewelry store.

A sick cow belonging to Mr. C. M. Bernard was shot Wednesday to relieve the animal's suffering.

Mr. J. R. Cory is having lumber placed on his lot just above the foundry, preparatory to building a residence.

The roller that the John Flanagan Buggy Co., constructed for the race track weighed 4,300 pounds. It was carried out to the track to-day.

For Cotton Seed Meal and Hulls and Shingles call on Henry Sheppard. Prices low down.

Mr. H. G. Jones tells us that he is going to locate in Greenville and will soon move his family here. He has faith in Greenville's future in the way of new buildings.

You miss a chance to feast your eyes if you fail to look at Frank Wilson's line of new clothing. No mistake about his stock being up to date in style, beauty and price.

At the corner stall in Market House you can find the nicest fresh Beef, Pork, Sausage, Fish, &c. All orders promptly filled.
D. G. MOORE.

APRIL AUTOGRAPHS.

That the Reflector Wrote Itself.

Master Lee Stewart is sick.

Mr. H. H. Wilson, of Kinston, is in town to-day.

Hon. J. E. Moore, of Williamston, is attending Court.

Mr. Allen Warren is visitng his daughters in Washington.

Deputy Collector H. W. Stubbs of Williamston, is in town.

Mayor D. C. Moore returned to his home in Bethel to day.

Mr. M. L. Wood and son, of Lewiston, are visiting relatives at Hotel Macon.

Superior Court.

Up to this morning, the time when the murder trial was taken up, the following cases on the criminal docket were disposed of:

Thos. Moore, killing stock on range, guilty, judgment arrested.

Gracie Little and Mary Ward, affray, guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Spencer Harris and James Harris, resiting officer, not guilty.

Lewis King, assault with deadly weapon, guilty.

The Murder Trial.

Peter Hardee, who on the 2nd of March killed his brother, B. F. Hardee, as they were riding along the road going to their home from Ayden, was arraigned this morning and the trial is now in progress. The jury on the case is composed of W. L. Smith, E. A. Barrett, S. D. Brewer, H. C. Harris, A. R. House, W. J. Tyson, Charles Tripp, C. L. Barrett, W. W. Whitehurst, J. W. Thomas, R. H. Allen, McG. Bullock. The prisoner is being defended by Woodard & Harding.

The clothing of a negro girl who lived in the railroad ravine caught on fire, Wednesday afternoon, and burned almost entirely off before the flames could be put out. The girl was right severely burned about the side and arm.

Cotton and Peanuts.

Below are Norfolk prices of cotton and peanuts for yesterday, as furnished by Cobb Bros. & Co., Commission Merchants of Norfolk:

COTTON.

Good Middling	6¼
Middling	5 13-16
Low Middling	5¼
Good Ordinary	4 13-16
Tone—firm.

PEANUTS.

Common	1 to 1½
Prime	1¾
Extra Prime	2 to 2¼
Fancy	2¼
Spanish	2¼
Tone—steady.

Eggs—11 cts.

B. E. Peas—best, 2.50 to 2.75 per bag.
" " damaged. 1.50 to 1.75.
Black and Clay, 90 to 1.00 per bushel.

Hotel Arrivals.

KING HOUSE—L. W. Seamon, New York; W. S. Govan, Balto; W. H. Tayton, LaGrange; J. L. Fountain, Falkland; J. R. Davis, R. L. Davis, T. L. Turnage, Farmville; C. W. Moody, Chicago; W. F. Snead, Va.

HOTEL MACON—C. H. James, Grindool; J. R. Dilda, Saratoga; D. L. Ireton, Philadelphia; Jno. C. McCraw, Warrenton; J. E. Moore, H. W. Stubbs, Williamston; M. L. Wood, Lewiston.

Watch this space and learn of all the pretty goods just received and opening up for your inspection.
H. C. HOOKER.

SEE HERE!

You can buy a

BICYCLE OF COLUMBIA MAKE

at almost any price.

The Superb Columbia in 4 styles at $100 each.
The No. 1 & 2 Hartford at $80 each weight 24 pounds,
The No. 3 & 4 Hartford at $60 each weight 27 pounds.
The No. 5 & 6 Hartford at $50 each weight 24 pounds.

All these are fully backed by the Columbia guarantee. There are none other for the price, as good. You can get catalogues free from

S. E. PENDER & CO.,
Columbia Agency, Greenville, N. C.

H. G. JONES,

ARCHITECT AND BUILDER,

Greenville, N. C.

Contracts taken for modern style brick and wooden buildings. Old houses changed to any plan desired. Plan and specifications carefully made at short notice. All work guaranteed first class in every respect. Prices made very low.