

May, ^{the} 4, 1864

Dear Wife

I Seat My Self
This morning to answer ^{your} kind epistel which found A, B, C in good health
By the great Blessing of God truly so, this makes the letters
I have sent A, B, C since I returned to Caswell I received one by A, B, Caldwell from you before this one I think you had better by that wagon if you can Ambers Staffor I started home this morning I told him to call and see you purland had started again I think sum of our mes will get home

Well, Mag, P, C, C

Want get much to write to you of import only I am well that is the best news I can send you I am sum times working and sum times standing guard I just came of guard and got your letter and read it and set down and answered it So I was glad to here from you all especly from Mother Mother tel her I will write to her soon I think you dun righ not cinn McGined paper bet him go to the war that is where he ot to be Nothing more. P, C, C, M, C