Dear Wife I received your letter this evening stating Mother's illness I was sorry to hear of it but God will be done not over I have done all I can to get a furlow to go to see Mother but it was all in vain that letter Bousler wrote me was of no use it is Madant wrote in his name he wrote it just like the family just got him to write for Mother if he had wrote me the right kind of a letter I could a got home but it came just as I expected that is the way he do business he col Madant a prove it when I sent it up it Madant do there was several looked at it before

I sent it up the said it would do the said the never saw as Shaby a piece from a Doct. it sound like he don't to please the family that is generally the way with those out of the war I wouldnt a mis-geting home to see Mother for five hundred dollars but my hands is tide I cant go I hope if I dont see her in this world I will in a better one where ther is no war to seperate us from each other I have no use of interests to write about the War my health is good I am glad to see his home tel him to write to
A. C. Caldwell;

I Don't think Mother
Will live long from What I can learn but The Fords Will be Don not ours I hope She Will be well tended to in her Sufferings May you may send my box on I don't know when I will be home I don't know whether in six month more may not then so you need look for Dr. C. Caldwell
you do with it let Park's keep it I don't want it I sent a letter to you by printer conveying the lab one I wrote with more may god
