

Hartford, Apl. 10/89.

Walter Williams, Esq.

Dear Sir:

Unquestionably I would do it if I could; but as there are hundreds & hundreds of unanswerable reasons why I must even think about it, I necessarily elect to stay where I am obliged to, & thus lose what I now would be a good time for me & an improving time for you — an improving time for you because, while ~~Watterson~~ ~~Watterson~~ Watterson, by himself, is a useless carbon loop, & I, by myself, am a useless wire, we are an electric light when we combine. Thanking you sincerely, I am
