

THE

REBEL GIRL

An Autobiography

My First Life

(1906-1926)

NEW WORLD PAPERBACKS

NW-158 $3.95

by Elizabeth Gurley Flynn

Salt Lake City Nov 18. 1915
10-P.M.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn 511-134th
N.Y. City

Dear Friend Gurley:
I have been saying Good Bye.
So much now that it is becoming monotonous but I just cannot help to send you a few more lines because you have been more to me than a Fellow Worker. You have been an inspiration and when I composed The Rebel Girl you was right there and helped me all the time.
As you furnished the idea I will now that I am gone, give you all the credit for that song, and be sure to locate a few more Rebel Girls like yourself, because they are needed and needed badly - I gave Butters picture Hilda and she will watch so his pony doesn't run away With a warm handshake across the continent and a last fond Good-Bye to all I remain Yours as Ever - Joe Hill

Write for complete catalog

INTERNATIONAL PUBLISHERS

381 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10016

