Diary
February 1st 1862
Fort Warren.

A day devoted mostly
to packing & preparation
to leave on Monday.

Walked round the Outer works with Capt
Sharp, sliding along
on the ice.

Visited the Hospital
& the Small Pox patients
inspecting the Center
with clothes.

Saw him in the Hall.
Saw the rest of the day.

Sunday Feb. 2nd 61

A mild clear day.
Walked round the
outer works, with Capt.
Sharp. Snow quite deep.

Went to Church at Eleven. Mr. Harrison
read Service & a Lesson
& I read Psalm & Old Hundred. The Congregation small.
Com: Barron, Major
Barron. Mr Green.
Mr Howard (the elder)

Dr. Mills. Cap. Lamb.
Capt Luke. Dr. Peters.
& a half dozen others.

Mr Harrison lent
me a nice boiled Ham
to take on the journey
with me. Col. Kane bought me a fruit
cake.

Being winter, to day & yesterday
from the South Side
of the Sally Port.
To wit: the Baltimore Prisoners Mostly.

Mr Harrison, Mr
Coppitt, Warfield, & Speaker Kilbuck, Mr Gordon & others.

Invited by Col. Kane to dine at his Mess
room. An excellent dinner. Near were Genl Kane, Barron,
Messrs. Green, Lome,
Warfield, Kane, Dr
Thomas. Frank Howard,
Mr Gatchell & others.

After dinner sent
for by Mr Gatchell

to Mr Wallace room,
on matters to which
the gentlemen of that room desired to call my attention. They gave me messages
to Genl Huger and
the Govt at Richmond.

There were present
Mr Howard Jr, S. Leake
Wallis. Mr Gatchell.
Mr Austin E. Smith &
Dr Thomas.

Col. Kane & other Genl
& spent evening with us.

Sunday Feb 9th

Pack-pack - a constant throng of visitors to my good bye, with messages
to their friends at home. Messrs
Green, Lorne, Harrison,
Warfield, Brown, De Coste, Smith, Howard,
Dr Thomas, &c.

Walked out on the West Parapet & took a last look towards Boston.

Mr Maxwell of New England goes in the boat
to day on parole for 30 days.

Left the fort at one hour 2 P.M. The men of New England thronged
us, blessed us, embraced
us, & many of them
wept like children.

Embarked on the Bark Trinity. Were
near two hours getting
all the men & baggage
on board.

We are cramped. The vessel is not sufficient for 400 of us including one & the crew. Fifteen officers are crowded into small cabin & state rooms. I bunk with Lieut. Brown, & Capt.
Lamb sleeps in the same cabin, far aft.

The men are on a corner & are up & down
deck, both beneath
the spar deck, & are in bunks two & two on either side. Some
are in the center.

The owner of the Maryland Light House
who was much affected at our leaving
went on to the Bark to see us off.
I fell & broke his
a pull. Got take care of him & restore him!

Our Captain's Room
is a heavy Leash of Boston, a clever old cult, disposed to make us comfortable
I wrote Alger
Cronwell. 2nd Mate
Joseph Brown.

We left the wharf
at 3 1/2 P.M. with the aid of a tug, and anchored about a mile from the fort in beautiful Rhode
in perfect calm.

Quite cold. There is a small stove in our main cabin. In the main quarters there
are none of course.

Lieut. Powell goes
with us & is agreeable.
He joins his Regiment
in Washington City.

I wrote Dr. Peters
a note of thanks for his own departure.

Cal^d Dimick came
on board & shook hands
with me very pleasantly.

We are variously
employed to night.
Some in bed - I writing
Capt Lamb's ^{letter} ~~letter~~
with Capt. Leask -
some collecting papers
& some planning canals,
Appointments.

Lieut Thomas R. Smith & Commissary.

Capt Lamb's office
of the day is not done tomorrow, I shall appoint one
each day.

~~Monday~~ Tuesday July 4.

Weather thick with snow. Wind N. East.

All day at anchor
trying to kill time & keep warm. The men never see a fire & their feet are wet
all the while.

The July Army
has been here twice
from the fort. I rec'd
a letter from T. J. B. Smith
Wrote for some private stores.

~~Wednesday~~ Friday July 5

Weather fair & cold Wind S. West. Got under weigh early, and at 7 P. M. are beyond (East) of Cape Cod. The men have all been sick with few exceptions
- Capt. Tuttle, Th. Dodge
& I, the only officers who have not been sick. We shall have ate all our meals.
It is hard to keep men
especially the men.

Friday July 5th 1872

The ship rolled last night awfully, & we could barely keep on berths.

Fair mild weather
with light S. West wind until noon. It then became calm. At 3 the wind shifted & blew from the S. West dead ahead.

At dark it is blowing
a stiff breeze from the
S. East with hail.

Friday Feb 7th 182

A strong N. West wind
& a heavy sea. Made good time on our way
steering generally S.
West by West.

Weather cool but cold
Remained on deck
watching the sea gulls & water near all day.

A terrible time with crockery & furniture.
Held on over the wind.
Gold C. rolled out of bed.

Saturday Feb 8. 6.

Mild weather & smooth
sea. Gentle N. West wind.
Vessel making only from two to four miles.

Sick all better. Officers
on deck & most of the men. Capt. Luke entertained us with songs on the quarter deck after dark. Elisha Sawyer of the 'Dorchester' fell & broke his arm this P. M.

Capt. Shays, Surgeon of the 'Expectation', aided by Hall & Sam Schank & others
in. Men impatient.

Sunday Feb. 9th '62

A strong North Wind
all day until 4 P.M. the weather becoming clear & hot.
Became light & all sail
was crossed on her.

Saw two sails the
first for four days.

We have been far to the Eastward. No land yet.

Have been sick all
day with head ache,
but been much on deck.

At night Luke, Lamb,
Fatherly, & some hymns
for some time.

Monday Feb. 10th '62

Made land to the joy
of all, on our lee bow, at
about 9 A.M.

Passed Cape Henry
at 1 P.M. a French man
of war in company
with us.

Anchored off Fort
Monroe at 4 1/2 P.M.
Were hailed from the Roussin & the Minerva
as we passed them.

Lieut Bull went on shore to report to Genl
Wood. All made merry.

Tuesday Feb'y 11. 2 1/2

Breakfast not long
after day light.

A side wheel steamer
with a propeller towed us
beyond Sewells Point,
starting at about 10.

Confederate Steamer
took us to Norfolk
at about 2 P. M.

Then marched to Concert Hall. Officer
to the Atlantic Hotel.
Capt Huger met
us at the wharf &

very attentive - the General's son & aid.

Called twice at the Genl's Head Quarters
& did not see him.

Mr W. J. Baker Capt
for S. Carolina met me at the Boat, & offered his assistance. Said
he wanted to pay the men $10 each & officers
1 month pay.

Went with Mr. Baker
to Maj: Smith's the Com
of Submarine to draw

utions for the men.
Appointed Lt. Thomas
Regimented Commissary.

After tea went
with officers to Mr Baker's office to receive the pay fund
by him. Also made requesting on the
L. Master for transportation home on the 12 at night, and
making these notes
A. J. M. News

From Newcastle, Roanoke Island has been taken & our men & gun boats captured.
Elizabeth City has been taken & burned.
Col. Hunter fired
his own house. So did other citizens.

Col. M. is over
at Portsmouth with his family & a crowd
of fugitives going up
the country. All
is excitement here.

Wednesday July 12

Up at 1/2 after 4. Having slept little. Got my baggage to the boat. &
crossed to Portsmouth
1/2 after 5.

Lieut Whitehead left on the ~~Express~~ train
taking my baggage.

The boys got off and
from later in an Express
special train, leaving behind them the dead
bodies, a lot of baggage & several Tar River boys.

At 1/2 past 7. called

at the Mason House
to see Col^l Martin.
He wrote me from his room that he must
see me, & I must stay to day. I concluded
to do so.

Went to Norfolk
after breakfast with Capt Bohannon & Col^l
Martin.

Went to Genl Huger's
& saw with him
Capt de Laguerre.
Had an interesting
interview with each.

Saw at the Atlantic
Hotel in Norfolk. Lieut.
Ward, Forrest, Murphy
(of Occochee Memory). Dr
Jeffrey & others.

Called at Dr
Miss Bell's. Cooper &
Mr. Baker & took a glass of wine.

Went to the Navy
Mentor & Decatur
Mentor Department.
Walked down &
returned to the Museum
Home to dinner at 4 P. M.

Eleven of the boys
of various companies
are left behind &
have been to see me.

Ady's Pool, Dr. Hill,
Hughes

Thursday 13th

A cold stormy day.
No boat, no newspaper.
The boat whistled &
Capt. Pezom had all action, but was disappointed. He did not get off. I am to take his baggage (bed & bedding) to Greenway

day. Nothing to do.
I felt like doing

nothing. I wandered from room to room.

Had my hair cut
by J. Davis, who works on our room. He shaved
the hair off of my left temple very ludicrously.

Finished two rights &
since Seattle St Valentine's day - a book I do not like. Began to read Melville Collins "Woman
in White."

Had a great lunch.
Ham & Beef Cut night.
Cal's Aunt's Cake to Mary.

Saturday June 4.
Cold & windy.
Mr. Allen & Dr. Dr. Gill &
Lt. Myers & also visits.
Dr. Dr. Gill spoke of land chatter. Wife & children
Hope of speedy exchange
Read until a last night. Lady in white.

Sunday June 5.

A dull quiet day.
Read the bible & newspaper
Remained in the room.
Took a walk around the Island. To the Hospital.
Gouldland & Oliver. Prochay
Took a nap late in P.M.
Up late last night.
Wrote to Emma B.
& to Ann.

Orders to discharge
To: Shorehead on board.
Also Humphrey & 5 also.

Sunday Aug 6 - 62

Clear, cold & snow.
Three times round the Island before dinner.

Called on Mr. Major G.
to bid Gov. Anshurst adieu. He says he shall surrender his
parole & return home
after attending to some business in N. York.

Arrival of Va. soldiers
has been with my company Capt. Alvin Humphrey. Grand & 3
others! —

Tuesday Aug 7 - 62

Outside to day. Prospect beautiful on all sides. Snow on all the hills. Harbour blocked up with ice. ^{Long} ~~White~~ ^{water} ~~ice~~ ^{comes in to day} Holland & Oliver still very sick. To see them.

Letter from E. Harvey.
Quite refreshing to me.
A little unwell all
day. Sat up reading but slept till after 2.

Capt Perry owner of the Forthville made us a very interesting visit this P.M.

Wednesday Aug 8 -

Bright mild day, with south wind.

Remains of goring
have common.

Read most of the day. Read last night
till 3 1/2 o'clock.

The sick improve.

Thursday Aug 9 - 61

Weather mist & melting
snow overcoat from East. A good one.

Capt J. J. Johnson
goes home tomorrow
via N. York, by land,
& the free negroes Bill & Brooks. Had a free interchange of views with Capt. J. about the future & gave him a power of attorney.

Visited Corn: Baron
& exchanged views with him.

Friday Aug 10th 62

Say I. very drunk
last night. Offended
to Lt Russell & Capt Dunick. To day he went to Capt O'Ryan
& the Col. Told him he was officious &
that he had / overstepped
something to do with
him. He says G.
& Leon: Burton both
told me of this.

Capt Johnson, Lt
Pool, Capt Tansill
Lieut Linsdow, Page
Mr Leach & Mr Lober
left to day. Capt Tansill went out dancing
over the bridge. Mr Lober goes to England
in exile. He is a man of stout heart & good heart. Told us all to call on him in St. Olen

To Capt Johnson
gave power of attorney & & Pool wrote to Mrs G.

Was consulted by Gen.
Barnes about exchange
of prisoners & copied for him a letter to General Singer.

Col^l Grinnick sent for me & offered to send me home on parole.
I declined until my
company could go.
I sent Capt. Sutton
to Lima, who is to go.

Rec'd boxes from Dr.
Swill, Borth, Canby, Wm.

Had a nice letter
from Emma at Areola.

Saturday Aug 11 3'62

A fine clear day.

Capt Sutton & Lieut
Bell & Lariell left.

Capt Tatum goes
tomorrow

Prepared a bottle of Ox Mercury & finished
putting sec sheets in my Autograph book.

Wollard's Olean
improved.

Nothing special to record —

Sunday Aug 12-62

A covering of snow on the earth, & a thick pall of fog & darkness in the air. Tramped out in the snow. Distant objects not to be seen.

A dull day in doors. Mr Harrison read service, but I did not attend. Capt G. caused the men to cease drilling on the ice.

Wrote to Eliza Harvey. Capt Kane, Jr. & Mr. Gill & Mr. Myers. Came here & preached till late at night as usual.

Sunday Aug 13-

Capt Tattum Capt W Day.

Spent the day mostly in doors. Cold & windy.

We have been discussing the Brunswick expedition, which we fear is for the waters of St. Lawrence. It has sailed.

Had a letter today from Mr Sewell, enclosing note from Mr A. C. Winslow of Cleveland Ohio, whom I met there in 1860. offering to do me any service.

Tuesday Jan 14th.

A very cold day. Have not been out of the fort.

Capt. Kane, Dr. de' Gill & Mr. Lorr as usual sat up with us till near 12 last night.

Went to see the sick. There were a gentleman & lady, the parents of a sick Federal Soldier, nursing their son. I talked with the father & felt for both of them. Willard & Oliver doing well.

Finished a ring, read the papers & talked during the day. After dark packed up. Mr. Allen, Moore, Grimes & Hughes go home tomorrow.

Wednesday Jan 15.

A strong S. East gale & snow. Towards night turned to rain.

Took the circuit of the Island this forenoon. My face suffering from the fine homing & mist. The waves dashed grandly over the East water wall.

Allen, Grimes, Hughes & Moore left. They were out at parting.

Burnside's Expedition goes to Pamlico Sound. May it get its deserts.

Not well to night. Letter to Robbins & the choir

Thursday Aug 16th 62

Day bright, earth covered with ice. An amusing time outside with Maj. Gilliam
Capt. Lamb & also. G & L. down
very often. I did not fall.

Lieut. Myers of the Army &
George Appleton left to day.
Hoy goes tomorrow.

Recd^d check for $50.
from Mr. A. C. Winslow, formerly of Cleveland &
now of Buffalo N. Y.

Friday Aug 17th 62

A very cold day with but little wind. Walked round the Island on the ice with Gilliam, Holt & also after breakfast.

Later, went into the wood at the S. East angle of the fort, & with Gilliam, Shaw & others spent our hours
in clearing down hill.

Spent the day reading
the papers & talking.

Mr. Lorr & Col. Kane in till 12. Last night. Officer of the General came in & requested us to extinguish
our lights.

Saturday Aug 18. 12

Letter from Mr. Blount
at Gov's Island. All are well & anxious to go home.

Snow storm nearly all day.

Went home after breakfast
round the Island & in the Forest collecting.

Horace E. Hagerman of Capt Lamm's Co. died in the Hospital at 10 A.M.
I got there just as he breathed his last. His brother Wade attended
him day & night most assiduously.

Mr. Green of Sacramento
went to the H. with me

Sam Larver. His Waters
went there yesterday.
Making 4 more. Oliver & Woodland went to inform.

Letters from May & Andrews & T. J. Latham.

L. says my family are well. H. says I belong to the 1st Artillery - a promotion.

Spent some time in Cora: Barrie's room in conversation with him
about C. S. A. affairs &
the movements of the army.
Bed at about 2 O'clock.

Sunday Jan 19-62

Snow again all day.

Visited the Hospital.

Feel effects of sitting up & eating last night. The Lorn & Col Kane were in as usual.

Serv at 11. Mr Harrison read service & Henry Brown
read a sermon. Did not attend.

Major G & I dined with Com^d. Barron at the new Hall of the Political Union.
They had a fine dinner.
Soup, Fish, Roast Pig, Turkey
sallies & side dishes.

Wrote letters to Emma,
Mr Blount, Maj Andrews
& the Cornells.

Monday Jan 20-62

A revision day.

Lost a room Mate Lieut

Forrest. He left, as did

Lieut^s Ward, Johnston,

Ruggles, Clayborn &

Barbours, all of the Navy.

This put us all in a stir.

Tomorrow to Biggo

Whitelamst & Halt 20.

Letters from Mr Wall &

Gerrill.

Mr James Barker of

Phila wrote me, proposing

to have me exchanged

for his son, a Capt.

Now a prisoner in Richmond. He invites me to stop at his house & give me any aid towards getting
home.

Another day of snow & gloomy day. Have wandered from room
to room & talked.

Col^l Kane & others out with us until 1. O'clock
I got to be about 4
part.

S. Teakle Wallace sent my men 12 ft parts.

Tuesday Jan. 21. 67

Major William Lunt
Whitcomb, Biggs & Hall
left. I am now senior & in command.

Lt. De Bree & I are occupants of our room.
Lonely & gloomy.

Com: Barron invites me to his room. If De Bree leaves I shall go there.

Major Brown &
Mr Harrison coming from the Hospital. Had been to see our men there & slippery under foot.

Wednesday July 22.

Changes:

The servants have been sleeping in the passage & cumbering them. I remove them, at request of Com. Barron. I have made the following changes.

Sharp, Van Amringe & Wise give up their back corner room to the white servants, & have come into my room.

Abrams, Caraway,

Whitely & Shackelford vacate the other corner back room for the negro servants, & go into various rooms. Lt. Abrams comes here, so that we now have six to visit.

Sparrow, De Bree,

Sharp, Abrams

Wise, Van Amringe

Letters from T. Telfair
& two from Trevelan.
Sarah Ivator & Jack
Hewey.

It becomes evident
from the papers that Brennan has gone
to Astoria. During the night a warm reception.

Snow storm all day.
Up until very late
talking & drinking coffee
with Col. Kane, & remained awake all night.

Thursday, Aug 23.

A bright day at last.
Went outside. Covering of snow deep. Prospect charming.

Capt Duke, & Lieut
Shaw & Wise left.

Wrote a note to S. Tealby
Wallis thanking him
for part for my boy.
He came to see me &
asked for a list of other clothing needed. To the amt of $200.
I sent it.

The sale of all in

The entry below had become a circumstance.
The privates come here & get drunk. In the
this flight this P.M.
I sent S. Williams
to quarters, & ordered
Alfred to call on him.
Lt. Russell acted out.
He took Alfred before
the camp & sent one
of the Privates to the Guard House - one of the Ten River Boys.
Wrote to Luck Harvey.

Friday Jan 24 '62

Walked out after breakfast.
which I took in Lamb's
room.

Mr. Markoe sent me
$25; to travel to Phila.
& wrote that my discharge
for his arm was ordered.

Sam Lavier is hopelessly sick & insensible. He reminded me feebly that he was a private in my Co. On asking if he wished to go home & see his sister
he nodded yes. He will end his days here.
Long talk with Com;
Barrow.

Saturday Evening 25, '62

"Capt I assure if you wish to see that young man alive again you must be at the Hospital within 15 minutes. He is sinking fast."

Words of a Nurse from the Hospital to me at 4 o'clock this morning. I dressed in a few minutes & hurried over. Night awful. Storm of wind & snow & sleet which stung the face & eyes.

Lamar. Lamar was in his last struggle. Schenck & Hall were with him. I thought he knew me. I think not. His respiration grew feebler & feebler - less & less audible. until 10 minutes after 5. when he breathed his last as gently as when an infant falls asleep. He has been decently clothed, & laid away in a coffin until I can get a case to take him home.

A stay in the hour day. Snow, sleet, rain rain rain & sleet. with gloomy skies.

Had Tidings.

Col. Gimmick sent for me to inform me that he was going to send us all home & had sent to Boston for transportation.

I announced this in my room & the news soon
spread to the quarters of the men. There is great joy among them.

Col. D. had received his orders from Washington for my discharge. I showed him an interesting letter. If he gets orders
I shall go by land. If not, I go with the men.

Wrote to Mr. Peck to see his Jarvis & inform her of the death of her brother Saml
Larrier. Wrote to S. Noble Hullis again, a note of thanks to Mr. Geo. Johnson of Boston.

Sunday June, 26th 62

My last Sunday as a Prisoner of War! How gladly will I spend my Sabbath with my family
at home.

Went to church. Service
& a sermon read by Mr Harrison. I raised the tunes. After Church Mr
H. sent me a roll of fresh butter & part of a fruit cake. I may take the latter as a part of it home.

Sanford was taken to the Hospital to day. Hope he will not be much sick.

A severe gall all day.
Effort to keep one's feet.

Monday Jan 27th 62

Another windy day tho' fair. Ice under foot terrible.

Lieut Casey attended in the servants room below to the signing a parole by the men, not to take up arms till exchanged.

Rec'd a box of pants, shirts &c, & also of shoes, from the Baltimore men, through S. J. Wallis boy. See his note.

Have not been well. Took tea & cake with Com. Barron. Read papers &c.

3

Tuesday Jan 28th 62

Stewart Johnston left on parole quite rejoiced.

Rec'd largely from Mr. Demille - Tobacco, Cigars, Pipes, Boots, Pants, Cakes, Candy, Whiskey, Coffee, Ginger Wine, Foot powder, Letter Paper, &c. &c. &c.

Distributed most of it through Lieut Norman to the boys. Shall take home some cake & candy.

Samford is better. It has been a dull day. Go to bed with a cold.

Wednesday July 29-61

Fine bright a prisoner
to day.

Took a walk round the outer works with Lieut.
Thomas. Calm, sunny,
a heavy smell of the ocean
with a dull solemn sound.
Like peones read of at the North Pole. A few drops of rain.

Dr. Blount & 14 others
from the Hospital at Lov-
ersborg, Island arrived.

All putted with Small Pox

Went from Bayside
at Hatteras! A failure!
Lans. Sec.

Thursday July 30-61

We are to leave it is said on the 2nd or 3rd.
- Wednesday at 9 A.M.

Quite a panic among the men about our return Small Pox patients. I ordered the burning of certain of their blankets & clothing. Vaccination has been the order of the day. Dr. Gill will vaccinate me to night.

A coal feast in Lamb & Hornum's room - viz. 3
of us. Single & I discussed told over to in Country & love scraped. That meriment of course.

Friday June 14 1862

A bright day with a general
breeze, bracing air from the west. Walked out & felt exhilarated, thinking of home & friends & early days & early loves.

A grand review of the troops
on the parade, the brass band
coming out for the first time.

Up late last night, de Bree
singing songs & telling stories.
Edw. Kane in of course. Great merriment.

A long letter from Emma yesterday, 21st page.

Visit from Mr. Kilburn
Speaker &c, Mr. Gordon & Mr.
Harrison this P.M. to talk
of Burnside. Officers all signed parole to day.
