Number 14

Volume XXXIII

GREENVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1958

Student Without A Dorm

DORMITORY FOR 512 MEN Work Underway; Here Next Wednesday HOUSING AND FINANCE AGENCY PROJECT NO. N.C. 31 CH 6 D

ERIC G. FLANAGAN AND HENDERSON. N. OENERAL CONTRACTOR

O. L. SHACKELFORD. ELECTRICAL CONTRACTS DICKS ELECTRIC CO W. M. WIGGINS CO. WILLSON, N. C.

CHEENSBORO. N. C. CONTRACTOR COLDSBORO, N. C. HOTEL SUPPLY CO. COLUMBIA.

STUDENT WITHOUT A DORMITORY. This scene may be exaggerated the new dormitory began last quarto a certain degree . . . but the sooner we have the new dorm, the fewer of our students will have to spend hours scouting for brokendown, poorly furnished rooms.

Concert Band's Annual Program To Highlight All-State H. S. Clinic

East Carolina's Concert Band will, in both this state and Virginia on present their Annual Winter Con- revious trips. cert on Friday night, January 31. The Seventy selected student musicians prints now. This dormitory will felperformance will be held in McGinnis are included in the concert band. low the same general plan of the Auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

sicians will be guests at the college ation and is serving at present as Also located across Tenth Street, soloist, will be guest soloist with ors National Association. with such outstanding bands as An- Feb. 7, New Hanover High School, Band, and has played in Carnegie lic.

student musicians.

performances with their annual tour, William's "Toccata Marziale."

certs later in the year, and the con- Gershwin arrangements, was origin- is ered during the last regularly cert at commencement.

Band will present a series of four bands capable of handling its diffi- ary 20. concerts in Rockingham, Whiteville, culties. and Wilmington February 6 and 7. Soloists on the tour will be xylo- the examination on Monday, Febru-The visits to these North Carolina phonist Steven L. Clements, fresh- ary 17 from 6:30-8:30 PM. towns will make up the fifth annual man, and trombonist Jack M. Pin- Tuesday night classes will have school students, and these young mu- North Carolina Bandmasters Associ- will not be included however. concert band's performance. | secretary-treasurer of the Southern his hall is expected to be finished Don Jacoby, outstanding trumpet Division of the College Band Direct- within the next two years.

sicians directed by Mr. Herbert Car- popular music and novelty numbers. week. also, special numbers by outstanding include Bach's "Prelude and Fugue three-quarter-hour courses, The East Carolina Concert Band ni's "The Silken Ladder" and Bizet's ter-hour courses.

They will tour Rockingham, White- at Sea" by Richard Rodgers, who one-hour examinations.

Second In Offing

By MARTHA WILSON

usiness manager and vice president Auditorium. men now living in Slay and Umstead good music. Hall combined.

Dorm Cafeteria s udents, will be operated under the on jazz.

Parking spaces surrounding the dance bands at the age of 14. form and the road leading to the At first a pre-med student at the president. form will be paved, and sidewalks will be laid. Also tennis courts are expected to be built on the surrounding grounds. No Names

Pending completion of the hall, the East Carolina Board of Trustees will decide upon its name. Work on er. Steel pilings have been driven deep into the ground until rock has (photo by Bob Harper) been struck, due to quicksand on this tract of land. Upon these pilings the foundation has been laid.

> Plans for a second new dormitory for men are now in the offing. Mr. Duncan reports that East Carolina College is the recipient of a preliminary approval for a loan from the Federal Government's Housing and Home Financing Agency.

Architects are drawing up the blue-Herbert L. Carter of the college mu- first, with four stories, a basement, The concert will be a highlight of sic department is director of the and rooming capacity for five hunthe All-State Band Clinic for high group. He is a past president of the dred and twenty men. A cafeteria

New Mens Dorm Brubeck Quartet Comes

building will be two recreation rooms Bates on bass. A great fan of Duke the U.S.A." and a cafeteria plant. The cafeteria Ellington, Brubeck claims that this nd its employees, including self-help musician greatly influenced his view Frat Telegraphs will be expected to dress for break- Brubeck grew up in musical surroundings. He was sitting in with

To the south side of Tenth Street exponent of progressive jazz in in gradua e work at Mills College. grew the Dave Brubeck Quartet.

of the college, the new dormitory Brubeck, say some of the experts, He is credited with strongly in Pass it. hould be completed by this date. Of same along and put jazz on the level luencing young musicians in the the piane, Paul Desmond on alto sax, "Brubeck Time," "Brubeck Plays project and complete it by March 1. Located in the basement of this Joe Morello on drums, and Norman Brubeck," and "Jazz Impressions of direction of Mr. Julian. And the boys A native of Concord, California, Sigma Nu national fraternity telegraphed Monday night approval for Kappa Sigma Nu, it was learned from Charlie White,

Dave Brubeck

the band. He will also be attending the weekend, scheduled as follows: Thursday, Feb. C. Packingham High School at 2 p.m. Winter Exam Schedule onstrations for the visiting high school children and at 8 p.m. for school students and band directors. Mr. Jacoby has been guest soloist High School, at 1 p.m.; and Friday, Devotes Two Days To Finals Set By Glass

dre Kostelantez and the Goldman Wilmington, at 8 p.m. for the pub- Final examinations for winter ary 18 from 6:30-8:30 PM. quarter have been scheduled for Wednesday night classes will have has been decided upon by the Junior Selections chosen for the program Thursday, February 20, and Friday, the examination on Wednesday, Feb-The select group of seventy mu- range from the classics to modern February 21, it was announced this ruary 12, from 6:30-8:30 PM.

ter, will present a varied and enjoy- Opening with the "Apollo March" Thursday and Friday will be de- the examination on Thursday, Febable program of music, including by Anton Bruckner the concerts will voted to double-period exams for all ruary 13, from 6:30-8:30 PM. in G Minor," the overtures to Rossi- quarter-hour courses, and five-quar- examination on Friday, February been contracted for the event.

will continue this year's schedule of "The Pearl Fishers," and R. Vaughan All one-quarter-hour and twoquarter-hour classes meeting three the examination on Saturday morn- Katsais, band; decorations, Jay Rob- Buccaneer. To keep in line with the forts of many people working very beginning the first week of February. Closing selection will be "Victory or four times a week will be limited to ing February 22, from 9:00-11:00. bins and Betty Fleming; invitations, Golden Anniversary theme, a black hard over a long period of time. I ville, and Wilmington. With them with Oscar Hammerstein turned out All one-quarter-hour and twowill be the Collegians and soloists. "Oklahoma" and other musicals. The quarter-hour classes meeting one or Completing their year's program selection, arranged by Robert Rus- two days a week will be limited to Classes Meet are the Spring Concert and lawn con-sell Bennett, who is noted for his a one-hour examination, to be adminally written for an NBC telecast and scheduled meeting of these classes East Carolina College's Concert has become popular with concert prior to 8 AM on Thursday, Febru-

Monday night classes will have tour of the band, which has played dell, sophomore, both of Raleigh. | the examination on Tuesday, Febru-

Friday night classes will have the ave been ordered and a band has 21, from 6:30-8:30 PM.

Saturday morning classes will have EXAM SCHEDULE

Thursday, February 20 Periods Exams Held 1 & 2 3 & 4 6 & 7 Friday, February 21 3 & 4

Jr.-Sr. Theme

Theme for the Junior-Senior dance Class, but it is still being held a sec-Thursday night classes will have ret, it was announced this week.

Lou Parker.

Smith, and Martha J. Hammond. Concerning the contents of the The Buccaneer is a member of the Invitations for the dance which will versary feature which will constitute Buccaneer is finished, I. K. commenbe on May 10 in Wright Auditorium the first 59 pages of the book. | ted, "Naturally, it is a great relief

Challenge To Frats

East Carolina College has a challenge. It's not from any one person, but three hundred thousand—victims of polio. They Dave Brubeck's Quartet will bring College of the Pacific, he changed need help. The question is, will East Carolina take time to hold modern jazz concert to the East his major in his sophomore year to its own March of Dimes Fund, a fund-raising campaign of the arolina campus on February 5. Bru- music. After graduation and a stint sort that might hold a candle to the one held recently by the neck's group, considered the leading in the army, he continued his training Washington TV station in a fourteen hour drive that netted en thousand seven hundred dollars from its viewers. Now East will be moving five hundred and America, is being presented by the lit was here he became interested larolina has well over three thousand students and about two twenty men come February 1, 1959. Entertainment Committee. The con- in jazz. A group of students formed hundred faculty members. Since the faculty could contribute According to Mr. F. D. Duncan, cert will be at 8:00 p.m. in Wright a workshop for jazz, out of which more than a dollar as this counts as an income tax deduction, East Carolina should set a goal of $3500, and what's more, sur-

This is a worthwhile project for the social fraternities to contemporary architecture, this "H" of the intellectual. His music, though development of contemporary jazz. undertake, if they are really campus leaders and if they really shaped structure will have four basically jazz, is shot through with Since 1952, his group, recording for Wish to be of service. This is one time asking for money from stories flus a basement. There will "long-hair" or serious concepts. Com- Columbia, has sold more records than the students would be a worthwhile circumstance. Thousand of be rooms enough to lodge all the bining the two, he comes up with any other jazz group. Some of his little children would benefit and ECC would chalk up another Colmubia albums are "Jazz: Red Hot service to the community. THE EAST CAROLINIAN CHAL-The Quartet includes Brubeck at and Cool," "Jazz Goes to College," LENGES THE SOCIAL FRATS. We dare you to undertake this

Southern Belle Ready, Raring To Win 'Best-Dressed' Title

Have y'all met Magnolia Beaure- election will follow. gard? Maggie is a gal who is interested in capturing the title of the The "Committee of Fourteen" in-"Best-Dressed Girl of East Carolina" cludes staffers Martha Wilson, Kath-

New York in June. Miss Beauregard seems to think SGA president Jimmy Phelps, Buchat she has the title in the proverb- caner editor I. K. Williamson, and ial bag. When interviewing Maggie, faculty and administration members: the 'old me, "Confidentially" that Dean Ruth White, Dr. Clarence Monk, her sister, Essie Mae, a renowned Dr. Martha Pingel Wolfe, Dr. Richard Southern beauty, had captured the Todd, Miss Janice Hardison, Dr. itle of "best-dressed" at dear "ole Frank Hoskins, and Miss Mabel Vatchez State." Not only that, but Doughetry. t also seems that Essie Mae has

New York.

East Carolina" will be chosen, a 1063, ECC. by 4 PM March 10.

Committee Named

and winning an expense-paid trip to ryn Johnson, Carolyn Smith, Boots Jackson Arnold, and Bob Harper; iven Maggie the "scoop" on what The "Committee of Fourteen" e Glamour editors are looking for will have a deadline for nominations med what the winners will do in on February 14. A ballot of the ten finalists will be run in the East Caro-A an'l of Glamour editors will linian issue of March 6 and results phoose the "10 Best-Dressed Col- will be announced in the following ge Cirls in America" the first part issue. The ballots must be returned f April. to the office in Wright Building or As for how the "Best-Dressed Girl mailed to East Carolinian, P. O. box

Deadline

"Committee of Fourteen" will make Now, Magnolia needs some compepre-election nomination of ten tition, so start looking and passing girls and pictures will be run in the the word around—"East Carolina's East Carolinian. A campus-wide beauties are on parade."

Editor Williamson Reports Buccaneer Sent To Printers

By BETTY MAYNOR

on January 21. This year's edition con- ions was given particular emphasis tains an increase of 52 pages over and should definitely be stronger in last year's. The largest increase is quality than heretofore." in conjunction with the Golden Anni- Now that the work for this year's

I. K. stated, "We feel that this year's another volume. Even at this, I am Committee chairmen include Mike than on any previous volume of the only possible through the joint efcover will be the pretiest cover used certain that this great book was Purvis Boyette; refreshments, Mary petal-grained cover with gold over- would like to pay personal thanks to tone predominates. To bring out the my entire staff, especially those few fiftieth birthday of East Carolina, a who worked so tirelessly. I also ap-Nominations for the May Court die-cut of the college class ring ap- preciate the cooperation I received are: Gwen Clark, Gail Davenport, pears on a solid black, diagonal band from the student body, faculty and Mary Lou Wyrick, Betty Britt, Vicki on the face of the cover. The name administration. In short, thanks to Eborn, Mary Lou Dickens. Patsy of the school appears on a white everyone who had anything to do with Bradshaw, Carolyn Aycock, Peggy band across the bottom face of the publication of the 1958 Buc-

I. K. Williamson, editor of the the campus departmental section, Buccaneer, reports that the 1958 which is a new addition to this year's Buccaneer, featuring a Golden Anni- book; student life, which is much versary theme, was sent to Taylor more extensive and also comes at the Publishing Company of Dallas, Texas, front of the book; fraternities; and

When questioned about the cover, to know that work is complete on These girls are to hand in an eight yearbook, I. K. said, "I feel that the National School Yearbook Associaby ten picture to Marsha Forbes, greatest improvement in the '58 vol- tion, which will judge the book this election chairman, within the next ume over the preceding one lies in summer. The rating, however, will

