

Mrs. Person to Write a Book.

Mrs. Joe Person is in the city on the way to her home at Kittrell's. During the winter she will be engaged there in writing a book, which will be in the nature of the origin, rise and development of her Remedy, and will be interspersed with incidents of travel. The book, Mrs. Person says, will be in no way an advertisement. It will be called "The Chivalry of Man, as Exemplified in the Life of Mrs. Person in Pushing Her Remedy."
