Hon. William B. Rodman Attorney General Raleigh, North Carolina

My dear Rodman:

I was very glad to see you yesterday down at Bath and sorry that I couldn't have a conversation with you. I think Edmund did a splendid job and I consider the occasion an unqualified success. If and when you are down here and have nothing to do, drop by and see me. I am still afraid to climb up stairs.

With best wishes, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Junius D. Grimes
