Dear Sir

N. Ampton 29th April 1820

My sawyers Allen & Shadrack informed me that they were sawing for you at 5/0m, per hundred to be paid when the job is finished, — as they have commenced for you at that price they may continue to finish, but my price is 6/0m, payable the first of Jan^y next, you & not pay them any money unless by my order — Y^{rs} Respectfully H. J. Barrett

As it is likely I shall take them at home in harvest time

Also Mr. John Peters (who is acting for Mr. James C. Edwards) requests that you & not pay Moses & Bolin any money unless by his order

Sir,

In answer to your letter to Mr Thomas B. Littlejohn, received by the last mail, I inform you that there is now due on Mr. Felton's Note (to which your name and seal is also attached) a balance of $198.36 with interest thereon from Nov. 10. 1821. till paid.

It is not convenient for either my brother or myself to wait on Mr. Felton. neither is it discreet to send a Bond by mail, when necessity does not require it.

I am respectfully

Your obedt servt.
