

My dear Coffield,

I was so anxious to hear from James I broke open your letter you must excuse me for it, father said he knew you would not care William is sick a bed having chills every day Bonja is also having chills he has them every other day, the rest are well
Your mother
A. Bushin

Miss E. C. Austin