HARBOR CRAFT

A complete list of the 42 types and their designations appears in ONI 54-I. Some of the commercial and Coast Guard types are illustrated in 54-A and 54-CG. The vessels shown here are only a few of the many types used for harbor operations and defense and are representative of some of the large classes of ships.

▲ A unit of the Army's GENERAL Class mine-planters.

▼ ARS 13—ANCHOR, one of a large new class. Several have been lend-leased to the U. K.

▲ A new USMC type YW—Water-barge.

▼ A harbor-defense net-tender of the 152' TREE Class. The 194' AILANTHUS Class is building. Note typical bow design for net handling.
