

BELLEVUE HIGH SCHOOL,
Bedford County, Va.

WILLIAM R. ABBOT, Principal.

Belleve, Oct. 7th 1874

Mr. Elias Carr,

Dear Sir,

I have been waiting to hear of your return to N. C. + your present whereabouts, before writing you in regard to your son. You will have heard from Willy in this of his present surroundings + his impressions of the place + the school. To us it is a great pleasure to have him here: we find him apt to learn, disposed to study, and gentlemanly + correct in his deportment.

I Entertain strong hopes that he will make rapid improvement, & please be assured that I shall use my best efforts in his behalf to that end.

Mr Wilson, who Esented him, handed me your Draft for $187.50, which amt.
has been placed to your Credit.

I am Very resply
Your Obedt. Servant
W. R. Abbot
