April 25th 1867

My Dear Sir

Yours of the 4th ult came duly to hand and would have been answered at once. But in it you stated I would find a bill of the cotton seed you were kind enough to send me. There was no bill in yours. And I have been daily expecting to receive it. That is the reason your kind favor was not answered at once. I suppose you forgot to enclose Bill

The cotton seed came duly to hand yesterday. And I assure you I feel under many obligations to you for them and your trouble.

Will you please forward Bill of Cotton seed and I will remit you at once the amt of Bill

I hope it will be in my power to reciprocate your kindness some of these days

Hoping you will pardon my negligence and accept my excuses I am In haste Your Kinsman
and servant
