

A. T. BRUCE CO.,
COTTON FACTORS AND GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANTS,
NO. 166 PEARL STREET,

New York, th May 13th 1867

Chas Carr Esq,

Sir, We omitted writing you on Saturday hoping to announce sale of your Cotton in the morning we had some speculative demand and we sold some few Bales at 25-26-27-27 1/2 according to grade, and fully expected to get your lot off - but the demand did not last an hour, and then the buyers thought they would wait later advices, the Telegraph was late and when it came reported the market 1/8^o lower, this made a dull time, Cotton is now held much stronger than it was, we hope to report sale soon, possibly in this, later in the day -

Yours Truly

A T Bruce & Co

3 1/2 P.M, The market is quiet and have not been able to move any Cotton so far.
