General Commission Merchants.

Washington, D. C., Oct 17th 1867

Elias Carr Esq.

Dear Sir,

Sparta, N.C.

Your favor of 7th inst at hand, & contents duly noted. —

We credit your account with $5.00 damage on Molasses, — You may return the package damaged molasses, as we possibly can get something for it. — We pay quite dearly for a little negligence on our part, (in not examining the Barrel before forwardg) but trust it may serve to prevent other loss. in that way. —

The charges on Cotton this season, forwarded from here, will be (50¢) Fifty cents per bale for forwardg (including expenses here) and $4.00 per bale freight to New York, via Norfolk per Steamers, & 3/4¢ per pound ft per Sail rent. —

Yours Very Respectfully.

G. H. Brown & Co.
