My Dear Friend

Your kind favor was duly recd with a letter of my understanding which was as complete and ample as I could wish in doing. It was such as I wished to whom it may concern I need nothing more if they should ask who you are, I would reply telegraph to Messrs A. J. Bruce also & Messrs Nancy Hyman also of N.Y. but I have had no occasion to show it or any letters except one to a house from Messrs Messenfeld also of Baltimore. I have also recd letters from Judge Biggs, C. B. Harrett, Whedbee & Stickerson & P. P. Clemens and others all of which are very good. I wish you to send me a draft on your Commission Merchants N.Y. for what money you collect for me after deducting enough to pay my note to C. P. Moore given to D. P. Sharp which is less than $200. I shall send all I can get as I have invested all the cash I had and taken a deed in trust for the payment at 10% interest for it until the 1st of February over W. B. Harper, W. H. Brown & Dr Jas Laurence as soon as due. The Note in your hands C. D. Simon Gurganous for sixty odd dollars hand to Judge Biggs as I have requested the Sheriff of Martin to get it the money for it and pay over to Biggs. I hope J. J. Williams and A. J. Mizell will pay up promptly I will write them you have the notes. Money is very tight here & Business very dull This
