Washington, D. C., July 1868.

Chas Carr, Esq. -

Dear Sir,

Sparta,

Your letter of 4th inst to Mr
G. H. Brown has been handed by him to us. - We have not succeeded in selling your mill, though we have been in negotiation once or twice with parties who made application to us. - You mentioned to Mr G. H. B. that you would be willing to sell at $2,000. - and that price Cash has been our terms. -

We know Mr Blakely, and will ascertain whether he wishes to purchase or not. - He has not mentioned it to us. -

Should he treat with you for the mill, we may mention that we believe him to be a very responsible man.
The party we refer to is Mr L. M. Blakely.

Yours Very Respectfully,
J. H. Robinson & Co.
