Dear Sir

Your Esteemed favor of 9th at hand advising shipment of one the last bale of Cotton, your instructions relative to disposition of said bale we note, We wish you had retained a large portion of your previous lots to have accompanied this lonely one, your interest (but that no one could tell) would have been promoted - For some days the market has been at a stand, it is a tug now between holders and buyers which way it will go - For your kind remembrance of the writer you have his thanks, no doubt the Stams will come to a good market among the numerous consumers of Bruce's - Agreeable with your request we have charged to your Debit $89⁴⁰ in settlement of our claim against Job Jenkins, by the way he should have sent us his Cotton to sell - We Enclose Circular - also Receipt for Mr Jenkins -

Yrs Truly
