Washington, N. C., Aug<sup>21</sup> 1868.

Mr Elias Carr
Sparta.

Dear Sir :

We have in store per Sch: E. A. Johnson for your account, 10 Bbls Pork, which we will forward by first opportunity. Capt Halton informs us that Steamer 'Cotton Plant' will resume her trips first week in Sept. We think it probable a flat will go up the River before then. -

Yours Very Truly
T. M. Robinson & Co.

We write our kindest regards, and will send you receipt for Horse <sup>soon,</sup> I left it out home, - Linniment, & would have done so before, but heard you had not returned from up Country.

I think Old Beaufort will give a respectable majority this Fall. Grant & Colfax is a 'mily poor circumstance' -

Hope you will come down this winter. I'll promise you some good oysters,

Your friend
Wacon
