Dear Sir

Yours of 25th duly rec<sup>d</sup>

Glad you are pleased with the Music Book,

We note your order for Rugging & Rope same will be attended to in time -

We with pleasure, will extend to you the facilities we have heretofore, we never have said no to any of your drafts, and we would have to be very hard run when we advise you not to draw - hope the small parcel for Mt C that by mistake went to Tarboro has been rec<sup>d</sup>.

We have Adams Co Express rec<sup>d</sup> dated 15 June for the Infants Shoes, addressed to you at Warrenton,

It is a pleasure to hear from you, and other friends, the improvement in the appearance of the Crop - The Firmness in Cotton continues and buyers are bidding 25c @ 26c for Strict low Middling for Oct or<sup>r</sup> delivery $20 Cash for Bale put up by Each party - so the prospect now is good

Yr Very Truly
A. T. Bruce & Co
