Dear E

Dear

From a letter rec^d from W^m he makes all sorts of good promises, which would if he carries them out be the joy of my life, I feel I am obliged to you, and that what you may have said to him for his good may be said not soon by the way side, My dear J^r Continue your good advice, and you will ever have the thanks of an anxious Father -

Cotton is firm we can get 15 and over if good for S. C. - Should futures run up would you like to sell 100 of yours by Contract - Let us know your views and the best efforts of R M B will be used for your interest

Kind regards to all

J. T. Bruce
