Bro. L. L. Polk;

Please answer the following questions through the next week's issue of The Progressive Farmer.

1st Is a man who keeps the jail, lives in the corporate limits of town, and hires a farm cultivated superintending the work himself, eligible to membership in the Alliance?

2nd Is a man who gets drunk often eligible?

3rd Is it wrong for members to tell others, (outsiders), how many applications are received at a certain any meeting and who the applicants are?

Please answer in the next paper and oblige
